Attorney Geenty May Appeal To Supreme Court

The will of Irving B. Chittenden, late of Summer Hill, North Madison, dated September 6, 1937, was upheld by a jury in the Superior Court at New Haven before Judge Simpson yesterday. Thus was concluded more than a week of a spirited contest in an attempt by Owen Shepherd, represented by Lyman H. Steele and William F. Geenty, to declare the will invalid as a result of alleged undue influence.

The will was admitted to the Madison Probate Court by Judge Cyrus D. Everts shortly after Mr. Chittenden's death, on October 15, 1937. By its terms the will gave the bulk of his estate, consisting of the homestead and 15 acres of land to Grace Blatchley and Mary Blatchley, both of Guilford. Mr. Shepherd claimed that a will made in August, in which the homestead and acreage was left to him, should have been admitted to Probate, and ap-

Unusual Play To Be Presented This Evening

"Night of January 16th", Famous Murder Trial Drama, Will Be Produced By Drama Club In Community House

An unusually large attendance is predicted for the performance of "The Night of January 16th" which will be presented at the Community House this evening by the Branford Drama Club. The show has always been extremely popular wherever it has been presented, from Broadway to Main Street, combining as it does the elements of a dramatic presentation and a sensational murder trial. The audience follows the unfolding testimony with close attention and everybody present forms his own opinion as to the verdict which the jury should bring in.

The jury will be selected from the audience, so that any patrons may be called upon to serve. Although the verdict returned is ordinarily "not guilty" the jury may decide whichever way the members please.

Under the direction of Oma Green Schmid the cast of twenty-two has been holding rehearsals every night for the past week to get the play in shape for a first class presentation.

The cast of characters follows:
Prison Matron, Edith Frey; Bailiff Harvey Royden; Judge Heath, Rob-

Branford Scouts Safety Campaign

Armed with the slogan, "Building a Stronger Generation," Branford Boy Scouts will embark upon a campaign of visual safety education February 12th to climax their celebration of the twenty-eighth anniversary of the founding of the Scouting Movement in America.

Having dubbed this activity with a typically Scout-like name, "Living Expo," plans are forming to dramatize safety methods through staging "live" exhibits in the shopping centers of Branford so that all persons may become alert to proper action both in the homes and on highways which will reduce the toll of needless accidents.

In addition to safety demonstrations, Scouts will reveal plans for fire prevention and first aid methods as learned in Scouting, thus creating a "living" exposition of the things taught to more than a million Scouts and leaders in the year-round health and safety training program of the Scouting Movement.

WPA GRANTS

East Haven has been allocated $23,768 for constructing walks and curbing by the Works Progress Administration. Branford will receive $1,851 for construction of a storm sewer on Rose Street it has been announced by Senator Lonergan (D-Conn.)

LINCOLN'S FAMOUS LETTER

Executive Mansion, Washington, Nov. 21, 1864

To Mrs. Bixby Dear Madam:-

I have been shown in the files of the war department a statement of the Adjutant General of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle. I feel how weak and fruitless must be any word of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I cannot refrain from tendering you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the republic they died to save.

I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement and leave only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.

Yours very sincerely and respectfully,
A. LINCOLN.

Light Company Pension Plan For Employees

Company Pays More Than Half The Cost—Begins March 1st

C. L. Campbell, President of The Connecticut Light and Power Company, announced today the adoption of a new Pension Plan for the Company's 2300 employees effective March 1st. The employees, all of whom live in Connecticut, will receive pensions under a policy the Company has taken out with the Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford.

In his letter to employees, released today, Mr. Campbell stated that some old age benefits are provided under the Federal Social Security Act but the Company has decided to supplement these benefits by additional pensions for the employees who desire to take advantage of the Company's Pension Plan, in order that the incomes of retired employees might be more adequate.

Amount of Pensions to be Paid Each employee who subscribes to the plan, upon reaching the age of 65, will be entitled to receive an annual pension under the plan of an amount which, supplemented by what he will receive under the present Social Security Act, will approximate 2% of all his earnings dating from March 1, 1938. Prevalence Of Mumps Cuts Into Attendance Of Branford Schools

Ailment Of Adolescence Has Had Run Of Several Months In This Vicinity—Parents Are Urged To Prevent Absence Of Children From School Without Valid Reason.

Pupils Asked To Help Spread Safety Ideas

A somewhat unusual approach to the problem of reducing auto accidents is shown in a circular letter from Dr. Ernest Butterfield, Commissioner of Education for Connecticut, recently placed in the hands of all Branford school pupils. In the commissioner's letter the school children are asked, in effect, to act as apostles of safety to the older members of their families.

The letter follows:

Children: Protect Your Parents!

The number of highway accidents to children is decreasing. The number of highway accidents to older people is increasing. This is because many older people are not as alert as children; many cannot see and hear as well; they have much on their minds; and they have not had the school advantages of safety education.

The Highway Safety Commission asks you to help in protecting older people from accidents. Guard your parents, the members of your family, and all older people from highway dangers.

Here are ten rules everyone should follow—

Fine Concert Sponsored By Local Battery

The 192nd Field Artillery Band will give a concert and dance, under the auspices of the Branford Battery on St. Patrick's night, March 17th at the Branford Armory.

This will be the first time in many a moon that our town has had the good fortune of having a real military unit perform.

In conjunction with the concert, there will be a short review presented by the Branford Battery, which will make a very colorful finale as the Band Concert comes to a close. Immediately following the concert and review, there will be dancing, with music being played by the orchestral portion of the 192nd Field Artillery Band.

Major-General M. B. Payne, commander of the 43rd Division, of which the 192nd regiment is part, and Col. O. H. Schroeter, commander of the 192nd Field Artillery regiment of which the Branford Battery and the 192nd Field Artillery

"LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA, NOW PLAYING AT ANNEX THEATRE

With a cast of thousands including Gloria Holden, Donald Crisp, Henry O'Neill and Louis Calhern, the Annex Theatre presents today and tomorrow "The Life of Emile Zola" featuring Paul Muni.

Featured in the cast with Mr. Muni are Gale Sondergaard, Morris Carmosky, Joseph Schildkraut and Erin O'Brien.

138 children have been absent from the Branford schools for longer or shorter periods during the present school year because of contagious diseases, according to figures released from the office of Raymond E. Pinkham, Superintendent of Schools. Mumps have accounted for the greater part of these absences, with 103 cases listed.

Actually the local prevalence of mumps has assumed epidemic proportions but the fact has escaped public attention because the disease has been running its course for several months, thus permitting old cases to pass away as new ones develop. The number of those affected at any one time has not been sufficient to handicap the educational program too seriously but it has lowered the average attendance of every school in the town.

The school authorities feel that this unavoidable lowering of school attendance averages makes it all the more important that children should attend school faithfully when they are physically able to do so. It is the usual thing to accept as valid reasons for absence given by the parents in writing, but the suspicion sometimes arises that parents are sometimes too lenient in allowing children to remain away

Driver Reward Plan Told By Local Agents

A number of important questions regarding the new Safe Driver Reward Plan were answered today for local motorists by Reginald S. Baldwin of the Branford Realty & Investment Co., and Irwin W. Morton of the Morton Insurance Agency, local representatives of The Aetna Casualty and Surety Company of Hartford, Connecticut.

The Safe Driver Reward Plan became effective in Connecticut on February 1st, 1938. On or after this date, the Plan will be applicable to all private passenger automobiles insured for both Bodily and Injury and Property Damage Liability on a specified car basis for a period of twelve months at regular manual rates.

The basis of the Plan provides for rewarding, individually and directly, the car owner who has no claims made against him. It is the answer to the appeals of careful drivers for recognition of the fact that they are entitled to individual preferential treatment in their automobile liability insurance costs and has been hailed as a "Real Contribution" to the encouragement of more careful driving.

The Plan guarantees to private passenger automobile owners who are insured for both Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability, a

Derby Here Tomorrow For League Game With Hornets

East Haven To Play Three Games Over Week End

Meet Seymour Away Tomorrow; Milford Sat., Hamden Next Tuesday

Coach Maher's Combine At Seymour High Gym Tomorrow Night; Strong Milford Club At East Haven Saturday Evening; Hamden Also At Local High Gym For Return Game Tuesday Night

Coach Johnny Maher's team, who lost a heartbreaker to Stratford last Friday, face two tough league outfits over the week-end, traveling to Seymour high gym tomorrow night for a contest in the valley town, and Milford comes to East Haven Saturday night for a conflict in the Housatonic Valley league, and Tuesday evening Hamden plays the Mahermen at the local gym in a non-league tilt.

East Haven's prospects in each of these games are good. On comparative score rating they should take Seymour and Hamden, but Milford, who were the first team to beat the Mahermen may not be so easy to take. Although in their first meeting East Haven, displaying poor passwork, abominable foul-shooting and slowest in working the ball down, the court and minus the services of Captain Jimmy Glynn, their sensational player, were the direct causes of them losing a close battle, but Saturday night Coach Maher's Blue and Gold huskies will be no push-overs.

In Seymour tomorrow night, East Haven will find the valley team a much harder club to beat than earlier in the season when both met, and East Haven took the close decision.

Hamden invades East Haven for the other big battle Tuesday night, this conflict will be a non-league fray and Hamden may not be very strong, but do their utmost to knock off the East Havenites.

Local High Wins Over Seymour And Shelton To Remain Undeclared

Locals Continue Their Winning Streak By Defeating Seymour High And Trouping Shelton Over Week End. Win 14 Straight Tilt—Second Team Also Add Laurels To Their Win Columns

Forced to extend themselves by a fighting Seymour team, the Hornets played what many considered their best brand of basketball for the season to win by the final count of 40 to 31 in the Seymour High School Gym last Friday evening. It cannot be said that the Branford team was in a slump, as they were when they met Seymour here, but it was the tough nature of the opposition which held them to a 15-13 tie at half time, saw them trailing by 3 points early in the second half, and forced them to call upon all their skill and experience to pull out ahead in the last quarter.

Seymour had evidently determined to compensate for a rather mediocre season by knocking off the first place Hornets, and they put on the pressure from the opening whistle. The first half was marked by close defensive play, Branford's only noticeable fault during this half was an apparent reluctance to shoot.

At the very beginning of the second half things started to turn. Seymour took a 3 point lead, but Branford took the offensive when Naimo threw in 3 successive baskets to take the lead. Seymour came up again and Torino made 3 field goals to give his team the lead.

Twice Branford had a 7 point lead but Seymour would not accept defeat and crept up to leave margins of only 3 and 4 points. In the final quarter the Branford team unleashed a terrific burst of coordinated speed that sent them to the fore and allowed them to finish 9 points to the good. This rally was staged without the aid of Torino who retired early in the quarter on four personals.

At first glance it is hard to see why this Seymour team does not stand nearer the head of the league. It is a good passing and a good shooting side and has all the right things anybody could ask for. When it is remembered that Seymour High has been playing for only two years after a lay-off of several seasons it

Milford May Get Bid For Class B Tournament

By Frank H. Nettleton, Jr. Don't be surprised basketball fans, Milford High gets a bid to the class B basketball tournament. The boys have their eyes on this reward despite the fact that they feel it is too late to voice their hopes and aspirations.

Milford, it continues the brand of great ball being displayed now, should be one of the first to receive an invitation to participate.

COMING GAMES

Frankie McGowan To Go Back Again To Play With Baltimore Orioles

Decision Made By The Former League Manager Was Reached After The Baltimore Club Offered Bonus

By BILL AIERN Frankie McGowan, once manager of the Baltimore Orioles, will return to the playing fold of that team after considering two bids from major league teams. The decision made by the former major league manager, who has been in the Baltimore club for a considerable time, was reached after a considerable amount of deliberation.

After being buffeted about for three playing terms McGowan went back to the American League under the colors of the St. Louis Browns. After a grand year with the Browns under the direction of Dan Howley, a year which they finished third, by the way, Frank became the victim of poor advice and through his advisors maljudgment was again sent back to the Kansas City Blues.

For the two seasons McGowan did well there and then getting no place felt he managed to be sent back to his starting point in New Haven. Once back in his old pastures he took a new lease of life and before long went to Baltimore. The Chesapeake Bay City was quick to realize his ability and in a few short years he was made manager of the Baltimore club.

From his first appearance in baseball, McGowan has been a star. It was sold to Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics but had the misfortune to break his wrist in a

Second Place Team To Give Branford Stiff Battle; Wallingford Here Tuesday

Lyman Hall-Branford Game, Originally Scheduled For Saturday February 19, Will Be Played At Local Armory Next Tuesday Night—Two Home Games Set For Drill Hall This Week

By beating the second place Derby team tomorrow night in the Branford Armory, the Hornets can annex another Housatonic Valley League championship. Every one of the other teams in the league has lost four or more games while Derby has lost three to date. If the local High quintet wins tomorrow night it could lose its three remaining league games and still come out ahead. A Derby victory would mean that the Hornets must win two of the three remaining games to take an undisputed first place, while one victory in a first place tie with Derby.

It is generally expected that Coach John Knecht's team will come through with another victory. They beat Derby by five points on the latter's home floor, a narrow, low-ceilinged court which was much more favorable to Derby's style of play than the local Armory surface will be. On the larger playing surface the Branford team's skill and experience should give them the victory by a good margin.

No slump in the form shown by the Hornets is likely. The team has had two off nights, against Seymour and East Haven on their home court, but they seem to have got the jitters out of their systems and have steadied down to a steady, efficient pace. The easing of the pressure as one rival after another has been defeated to the rear probably has had a lot to do with the confident, efficient way in which the Hornets celled for the Baltics.

Summary: Branford Big Five G F Pts. Opinski, if 4 1 9; Torino, if 3 2 6; Shillinsky, if 3 2 6; Aguzzi, if 5 1 11. Score at halftime 10-8, East Haven.

Among the prize winners of the National Sportman's fishing contest for 1937 was Casper Block of Branford.

Mr. Block is listed as having landed an 8 pound weakfish at Faulkner's Island, Connecticut, on the twenty-third of June, using a Bistrol rod, a Pileuger reel and a Sand Worm lure.

A prize of $5 goes with the citation.

THE MOVIE GUYED

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP:

Clark Gable, now starring in "Test Pilot", has had the interior of his portable dressing room on the set refurnished in white pine. He claims it makes him feel more at home since he's so used to living in cabins while roughing it on hunting and fishing trips. Spencer Tracy is still practical joker number one on the set. The other day, he sent Gable an Outdoor Life magazine with a beautiful cover. As Clark settled to read it, it was disclosed that the magazine was a book of blank pages. As his retort, Clark has mailed Spencer a blank letter of thanks. Nelson Eddy has been riding that speedy racing bike around the lot so much that he has bought an extra one for home use. John Barrymore got a warm welcome when he moved to M. G. M. for his role of Louis XV in "Marie Antoinette". It marks the star's first appearance on the lot since "Romeo & Juliet". Joan Crawford purchased a doll for herself, but upon unwrapping it in the presence of her three-year-old niece, Joan Le Sueur, immediately presented it to her. Now Joan is going shopping again for an exact duplicate for herself. Last week, Miss Crawford presented namesake Joan with a miniature electric stove, complete to minute details. Now, every afternoon at three, the M. G. M. star has tea, which the three-year-old youngster delights in preparing on her new stove.

HOT TIPS:

The Loew Poll College Theatre will present for a Second Big week the picture that has every one talking about the new screen find Alan Curtis in "Mannequin". Joan Crawford and Spencer Tracy co-starred for the first time in a dramatic, romantic human story of two people seeking happiness, with the world against them. Miss Crawford again the "Dancing Lady" as Jessie Cassidy, a show girl who got her start in the squalor of a New York tenement house and wound up in the multi-millionaire's penthouse, but who asked for nothing more than a three room apartment and the man she loved. Tracy as John L. Hennessey two-listed boss of the waterfront, a man who rosp from a dock worker to become a millionaire steamship owner. A role made for Tracy, and one that promises to top his performance in "Big City". "Captains Courageous" and "San Francisco" three consecutive smash hits.

Alan Curtis, a new comer, given his first big screen opportunity as Eddie Miller, a handsome, fast talking weakling who marries Jessie (Joan Crawford) and can't hold her. In the star-making part a meteoric success to rival that of Robert Taylor, is predicted for Curtis. Also in the cast are Ralph Morgan, Mary Phillips, Oscar O'Shea, and Leo Gorcey who plays the same type role of the swaggering water front tough role that won him fame in "Dead End".

The Second Big Feature to complete the program is "She Married An Artist". You might not think it to look at him, but John Boles became an actor at the point of a gun. This revelation came from John himself recently during the filming of his picture, "She Married An Artist" in which he is co-nelco, Joan Le Sueur, immediately presented it to her. Now Joan is going shopping again for an exact duplicate for herself. Last week, Miss Crawford presented namesake Joan with a miniature electric stove, complete to minute details. Now, every afternoon at three, the M. G. M. star has tea, which the three-year-old youngster delights in preparing on her new stove.

The Loew Poll Theatre offers for one week starting Friday, February 11th, Sonja Henie and Don Ameche in "Happy Landings" with Cesar Romero and Ethel Merman in the supporting cast.

The Second Big Feature on this program is "The Jones Family in 'Hot Water'" with Spring Byington, Ted Prouty, Kenneth Howell, Shirley Deane.

Starting Sunday the Loew Poll Bijou Theatre will present "The Duke Comes Back" with Allan Lane and Genevieve Tobin.

The second portion of the program consists of "The Legion of Missing Men" with Ralph Forbes. Starting Thursday thru Saturday "Rosalee" and "Danger, Love at Work" with Ann Sothern, Jack Haley and Mary Boland also Edward Everett Horton.

WATCH FOR SOON:

"Test Pilot" with Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy. "A Yank at Oxford" with Robert Taylor and Maureen O'Sullivan. "Charlie Chan at Monte Carlo" with Warner Oland. "The Girl of the Golden West" with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy. See you in the MOVIES.

pealed from the decision of Judge Evars.

The appellees, represented by Stephen S. Dunn and Charles M. Lyman, put into evidence the will, drawn by Judge George C. Conway of Guilford and witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Dahlberg and August Proll, neighbors of Mr. Chittenden who testified as to his strength of mind and physical fitness at the execution of the will.

The appellant, Owen Shepherd, next door neighbor and close friend of Mr. Chittenden since 1914, then attempted to introduce testimony that Mr. Chittenden, who was 85 years old, was influenced by Grace Blatchley, housekeeper of 3 months standing, in the execution of that will. Testimony was adduced to the effect that Mr. Chittenden, who has lived alone since the death of his wife, in 1933, hired Grace Blatchley to serve as his housekeeper in June 1937; that on June 25th and again on August 17th wills were drawn in which Mr. Shepherd was the chief legatee; that on September 6th a new will was made by which Grace and Mary Blatchley were to be the chief legatees, to the exclusion of Mr. Shepherd. Thus aggrieved, Mr. Shepherd claimed that said will "was procured to be executed under improper, unlawful and undue influence exerted by others than the appellant, which influence was exerted against the appellant."

Most testimony was introduced by lifelong friends of Mr. Chittenden that he was a man of few words, firm in character and could not be influenced against his wishes. The jury started its deliberations at 3 o'clock on Tuesday but reported to Judge Simpson at 5 o'clock that it was unable to reach a verdict. The Judge ordered that the jurors consider the evidence overnight and report for further deliberations at 10 o'clock the following morning. At that time the jury again reconvened and reported its verdict 2 hours later. Judge Simpson declared that he was happy that a verdict had been reached since the matter involved did not warrant continued litigation.

Attorney Geenty, associate counsel for the contestant indicated that he would ask that the verdict be set aside, and that an appeal to the Supreme Court would be considered after the transcript of testimony is studied.

WHY FEBRUARY HAS ONLY 28 DAYS

The Babylonian way of keeping time was to have five years of twelve thirty day months each and a thirteenth month of thirty days every sixth year. In reforming the calendar Julius Caesar knew that 365 days did not constitute quite a full year. His arrangement gave the first, third, fifth, seventh, ninth, and eleventh months thirty-one days each and all others thirty days except February which had twenty-nine days for three years and thirty days every fourth year. The month of July which had thirty-one days got its name from Julius Caesar. When Augustus Caesar became Dictator he

Lauren Gibbud Passes After Long Illness

The death of Lauren Hotchkiss Gibbud of 116 Harbor street occurred yesterday morning, shortly after midnight in his home, following a long illness. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., and was in the 66th year of his age. The greater part of his life was spent in this town. He was a member of Trinity Church and Trinity Men's Club. Surviving him is his widow, Lizzie S. Merriam. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m., with services in the Griswold Colonial Home, 69 South Main Street. Rev. Robert J. Plumb, rector of Trinity Church, will officiate, and the burial will be in Fair Haven Union cemetery, New Haven.

The Woman's Republican Club, on next Monday and Tuesday, February 14th and 15th, is sponsoring the movies "Damsel in Distress" starring Fred Astaire and "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry" with Freddie Bartholomew.

The next club meeting will be held wanted the succeeding month, which was then called Sextills, named after him. But, he wasn't willing to have a thirty-one day month named after Julius and only a thirty day month named after himself. So he made August a thirty-one day month and took a day from February making twenty-eight days for three years and twenty-nine days every fourth year.

Highway Guide Has Article On Branford

This description of Branford appears in U. S. One: From Maine to Florida, first of the Highway Guides in the American Guide Series prepared by the Federal Writers' Project, WPA to be published February 28, 1938 by Modern Age Books, Inc.

At 63.1 m. the road crosses the Branford River, which flows into Branford Harbor two miles South. At 63.3 m. is the intersection with US 1-Alternate, a new four-lane highway bypassing the old and interesting village of Branford.

NS 1, no longer than the cut-off, passes through the center of Branford, 64.2 m. (Branford Town 7,022 population), named for Brentford in the English county of Middlesex. It is a pleasant residential area, formerly a busy center of shipping. Here is the site of an important salt works, the product of which was used in the preservation of meat for the Revolutionary Army.

In this section are many fine old houses. One of the best is the Samuel Frisbie House (L), on East Main St. (US 1), a red two-story clapboard structure unaltered since it was built in 1792.

Grouped about the green, a large triangular plot (L), are the town's public buildings, churches, and monuments.

On the southern side of the green stands the small cupola-topped Branford Academy Building (1870) now occupied by the local historical society. On the Southeast corner is a small commemorative tablet calling attention to the site of the Reverend Samuel Russell House, where in 1701 ten clergymen met and donated books for the founding of the Collegiate School, later Yale College.

At 64.5 m., on a knoll overlooking a small green, is the James Blackstone Memorial Library, a marble building of 1896, which, though having the pretentious architectural detail typical of that period, houses an uncommonly fine library for so small a town.

At 64.9 m. is the junction with North Harbor Street. Left on North Harbor Street to Branford Point, 1.5 m., where are a large restaurant and municipal bathing beach.

At 65.3 m. the highway bears North to rejoin the four-lane highway, US 1-Alternate. West of the village, 6S 1 ascends the Branford Hills, with good views ahead. At 65.9 m. it passes Lake Saltonstall. Here, on Beaver River (R), stands an old Mill with heavy timbering. It is on the site of the first iron mill in Connecticut, though undoubtedly it is not the original building. A clause in the deed making it mandatory for the owner to grind any corn or grain brought to him by a property owner of East Haven might prove embarrassing to the present owner, as only one millstone now remains.

Man About Town

Happened to see an old copy of a paper published in a certain Connecticut city. Apparently they were running a contest on "What Homeville Needs," and several citizens had written in letters containing their ideas.

From what I read in the papers now it seems that a couple of tons of insecticide scattered around the city hall wouldn't go bad.

Grand jury please note.

A Hotchkiss Grove resident reports that he heard a bluebird Sunday and that crocuses are budding. Even so, we're still betting on the ground-hog.

This next is also pure hearsay, or anyway it's hearsay. Ray Johnson of Stony Creek moved to another part of the village without his cat which didn't happen to be home at moving time.

Finding nobody at home the cat went down to the post office and hung around there three days until Ray's boy dropped in for the mail and took pussy home to the bosom of her family.

If it had happened in Branford Center the cat's best bet would have been to stick close to the Branford Theatre until Bank Night rolled around.

No use to comment on the weather these days. Before we go to press it will ring in a dozen new changes.

Dropped in on a Congregational Players meeting Monday evening and later went down to the Community House to watch the Branford Drama Club rehearse. The High School Seniors also have a play in the works.

I've been getting so much dramatic atmosphere this week that I don't know whether to hide the papers or tear up the child.

Georgeann Nygard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Nygard of 10 Bartlett Road, East Haven, celebrated her fifth birthday recently with a party at her home. Her guests were Emily Nygard, Mary Jane Piazza, Margaret Rose Molloy, Jane Molloy, Virginia Sedon, Anne Moore, Anne Montgomery, June Montgomery, Bernadette Castle, and Carlene Potter, Mrs. Nygard was assisted by Mrs. Russell McGuigan.
