East Haven Prepares To Bring Out Big Vote In November Election

Large Democratic Rally Planned For October 29—Charlotte Miller and Ernest C. Carpenter Nominated By Republicans As Candidates To The General Assembly

Ernest C. Carpenter and Mrs. Charlotte Miller were nominated for the posts of representatives in the General Assembly at the Republican primary Tuesday, with light voting reported in the three districts. The official town committee ticket recommending their nomination and that of five candidates for Justices of the peace was unopposed. George Beckett was moderator in the center district of East Haven at the town hall while the Republican deputy registrars presided at the primaries in Momaugwin and Foxon.

In the naming of Mrs. Miller to the candidacy for the legislature the Republican party has departed from its usual course. This is the first time the party has named a woman for this place. Mrs. Miller has long been an active party worker in East Haven and is widely known for her interest in civic affairs. Her running mate, Mr. Carpenter, was at one time head of the former municipal Americanization Bureau in New Haven.

Mr. Carpenter has not previously been active in local politics. In the past he has held a number of important pastorates in the Methodist Episcopal denomination and is at present the pastor of the Union Chapel, Short Beach. He has frequently been heard on various local issues in East Haven town meetings and has written extensively on East Haven civic topics. Mr. Carpenter is a life-long Republican.

He has been called upon in previous years to speak at 75 high schools and has addressed political gatherings in St. Louis, Baltimore, Ohio and Philadelphia.

The official slate for justices of the peace carries the names of Judge Clifford B. Sturges, Roy E. Burwell, Joseph F. Adams, Rudolph

Post Office Has Storm Relief Information

Postmaster Joseph Driscoll attended a meeting in Hartford Tuesday in the House of Representatives held to suggest plans for hurricane damage relief.

It was estimated that 200,000,000 hardwood trees are down in Connecticut. Twenty years is the ordinary consumption period to use the wood.

A tentative set-up was made with a $10,000,000 pool revolving fund to release the trees as the need demands. It was recognized that the conditions create a tremendous fire hazard and that the lumber will deteriorate rapidly.

Committees are busy on the proposed set-up. Meanwhile Dana Davis, secretary to Thomas Hewes, State Coordinator has placed with Joseph Driscoll four circulars to be distributed to the public "Relief for Farmers," "Relief for Individuals Other Than Farmers," "Relief for Farmers and Fishermen," "Relief for Municipalities."

Branford Girl Becomes Bride of V. H. Kennedy

Before a setting of chrysanthemums and palms a pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Mary Elizabeth McGrall, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence McGrall, became the bride of Vincent Hugh Kennedy, son of Mrs. Mary Kennedy of New Haven. Miss Shelley McGrall, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Thomas J. Coffey of New Haven acted as best man for Mr. Kennedy. The ushers were Joseph Costigan and Lee McGrall.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a gown of ivory crepe fashioned with long streamers which fell from the shoulders and formed part of the train. Her long veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a gown of blue Chinese embroidered net, a muscatel velvet doll hat and matching shoes. Her bouquet was of tallman roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Racebrook Country Club. Receiving with the bride and groom were the bride's mother, who wore blue with matching tulle hat and corsage of orchids, and the groom's mother who wore Bay Blue with black accessories and a corsage of white roses and bavardia.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will be at home after November 1 at 96 Atwater St., New Haven.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

By Friday of this week, all of our customers should again have electric service. Good progress has been achieved by our regular and special forces assisted by favorable weather.

In our efforts to promptly restore service to several thousand customers under emergency conditions, it is possible that unknown to us a few customers are still without service. If you are one of these, please notify our office immediately.

In a few days, the line crews will begin to substitute permanent construction for the temporary lines and repairs made during the emergency. Occasionally on that account, the electricity may be cut off for a short period, and we shall be grateful for your continued patience while this reconstruction is going on.

Teacher Married To M. Thompson

The marriage of Miss Helen Agnes Ramon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ignatz Ramon of 86 Main St., to Martin Edward Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson of Hazardville, was solemnized in St. Mary's Church Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. Rev. Edward J. Demenske performed the marriage ceremony and Father Fitzgerald sang the mass. Mrs. J. J. Collins was organist and James Cosgrove was soloist. Miss Frances Ramon, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and John Thompson, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was dressed in a brown suit with matching hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. The maid of honor wore a duobonnet and a corsage of tallman roses. Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside in Hazardville.

The bride is a graduate of Branford High School and New Haven Teachers' College. She was a member of the Branford teaching staff. The groom is a graduate of Enfield High School, and attended Providence College and the Bigelow School of Craftsmanship. He is now connected with the Bigelow-Sanford Carpet Company.

Roy C. Enquist, Branford Fire Chief, was unanimously nominated by Republicans of the 12th district to run for state senator at a convention Saturday in the Hamden Town-Hall. Enquist was unopposed as Irwin Morton also of Branford, withdrew from the race before the convention.

H. B. White, of Guilford presided over the convention and Miss A. Loretta Plumley of Northford was secretary. Col. Ernest L. Averill of Pawson Park placed Enquist's name before the convention.

The convention was adjourned to Centerville for luncheon, after all business had been transacted and a change in the meeting place.

The Republican caucus was held Tuesday night, at which the following officers were nominated for the election Nov. 8: representatives John W. Barron and Harry G. Cooke; Justices of the peace, Earle A. Barker, Louis B. Zacher, Albert Hillman, and Raymond F. Barnes. Other local candidates who will appear on the ticket are senator, Roy C. Enquist and judge of probate, Edwin R. Kelsey.

The adjourned annual town meeting which met Monday forenoon in the Community House voted affirmatively on all articles of the warrant which had to do with the acceptance of official reports and the passing of appropriations as recommended by the board of finance.

Article 6, proposing that the town accept as public thoroughfares Brainard Road and Matthew Road, owned by the Lakeview Realty Company, was tabled. Walter H. Palmer served as chairman of the meeting, and Winfield R. Morgan as clerk.

Delegates from the 12th senatorial district held a district convention in the town hall for the purpose of nominating a Democratic senatorial candidate for the district which includes, Branford, East Haven, Hamden, North Haven, Wallingford, North Branford, Guilford and Madison.

Prof. Fleming James of the Yale Law School received the nomination. Democrats here believe he has a good chance to win as Robert A. Rosenthal, two years ago was only defeated by 187 votes.

Branford delegates were: Maurice Kirby, John B. Sliney, Edward Longergan, Charles Wilkowsky, Oscar Hansen, Louis Richtell and Charles Jones.

Bronson Co. Is Now Open

The Bronson Chevrolet Company, located in Veto Street, next to Nygard's Garage, is now in complete operation. The new company will specialize in selling and servicing Chevrolet motor cars.

Bakers Add Apples To Flour To Improve Quality Of Bread

Bakeries in the Pacific Northwest have developed methods for adding apples to bread which are gaining considerable attention. One method, in process since the first of this year and used, or about to be used, by 20 concerns in Washington, Idaho and British Columbia, consists of an apple sauce formula which permits the adding of 20 or 30 per cent apple ordinary bread, without resulting in a soggy loaf.

LOST FAITH

You are a mean treacherous contemptible two-faced knave who hate you. You fed and bathed us, fondled, embraced and caressed us teaching us love and trust.

It is true, on occasions you got beyond control, went a bit wild but we knew the extent of our concern. Knew that after your rampage you would return repentant, an affectionate prodigal, sorry for his sins. You never pushed a certain point.

Cross and ugly you had been all week. Nothing pleased. In an uncalculated display of temper you lost yourself in a tidal wave and hurt those who liked you most.

We have lost faith. Just now we fail to see how we can return you to favor. That one display killed your reputation and we are suspicious, suspicious of your every move.

But as we saw you at the harbor this morning, saw you reaching for the sands, slowly, calmly with that sad whipped dog expression you have assumed we knew we could forgive you.

Not at once will you be returned to favor. A dead lie that cannot go un punished, unreprised.

We will forgive because we love you—you are so like us.

BE LOYAL TO BRANFORD

"Be Loyal to Branford" is an appeal that will soon be broadcast to residents of this community by the newly formed Branford Business Association, in an endeavor to better business conditions in the borough.

There is no doubt but what the local merchants will be right in appealing to local residents for loyalty in their shopping. Local merchants deserve first consideration by the community.

They are part, a very important part, of our community life. Without their cooperation throughout the year, day in and day out, we would have a very trying and expensive time purchasing the daily necessities for our home. For this reason alone, if not for community loyalty, we should respond wholeheartedly to the justified appeal of the local tradesmen.

There may be a criticism from some folks that Branford merchants do not carry everything that is on the market. That's true. Neither does New York where so many people go for shopping sprees. Many New Yorkers go to London and Paris. Perhaps the fields afar do look greener than our own field is sighted.

Such is always the temptation beyond the horizon... that which we can not see... However to get right down to concrete facts local merchants will provide any commodity that you want to purchase in a few days for it in his youth or lost it in the transition from youth to maturity. Homes with good libraries well-read by adult members of the family seldom are the scene of juvenile revolt against helpful reading.

It is not until we are all considered. "Be Loyal to Branford" is a worthy creed for all of us to follow. It is entirely unselfish and if adopted will go far in making Branford OUR BRANFORD IN UNITY.

WHITTLING

Is whittling becoming a lost art? Not until we mention times when we watched a countryman leisurely and deftly reduce a pine stick to curly shavings with his jackknife did we realize how long since we'd seen a whittler before. In our boyhood 'most everybody, man or boy, whittled and kept his knife sharp and shining. You sat on the milkstand by the barn or on the porch of the farmhouse or crossroads store and whittled—sometimes alone and often as you conversed with companions. If a neighbor pulled up beside the road with his horse and buggy and stopped under a shade tree, you put one foot restfully on the hub of a front wheel, and found a stick.

Most of the whittlers we know, member, except a few who whittled our paddles, watch charms or other articles, seemed to whittle just for the sake of whittling—in the plain, pure, relaxation, and joy of the shavings fall where they would. Not all whittling, however, was as simple and guiltless as that. When Hiram Stebbins was cogitating those trade or wanted to buy your boy, he could whittle so nonchalantly that those or cut seemed the farthest thing in creation from anything that he wanted to possess—that is, if you didn't know Hiram.

Maybe a census of whittlers would show more of them left in this country, than that of whittling in villages and on farms than the city man thinks. If so, "something" by whittling passed, something very American, might be whittled away from anything that it is to us today and continue its contributions to serenity and contentment in its simpler days.—Christian Science Monitor.

Pastor Tells A New Story

Ernest C. Carpenter, nominee of the East Haven Republicans for State Representative in the "Blue State" primary, Vermont this week, came home with the following previously untold story.

Carpenter's alter, whom Mr. Carpenter visited said that in her room a certain farmer had, Ed, who owned a handsome, but badly horsed Billy, Ed said that he crossed with the mule as it whenever it was possible.

There came a day when Ed Chubb, the body of his choice for the big ride. They were accompanied by another Plymouth Miss who went along as sort of chaperone.

Heart of the Green Mountain's returning home toward dusk via Plymouth Union Mountain an exceedingly busy sleep mountain.

Billy saw a puddle of water at the foot of the mountain. Billy elected his day's work was done and much to the mule's chagrin, stopped short, decidedly balked.

Mr. Carpenter's sister fed surgery to Billy, Ed said words—out to a vet. Billy remained firm. Ed's holiday was ruined.

A troop of village boys, off on a hike saw a badly horsed and offered suggestions to no avail. In a last effort the group pushed from behind the buggy, forcing Billy, Ed, across the water on their way down the country road.

Calvin Coolidge ducked the splash of the puddle as he and the other youngsters continued their tramp into the country.

Among those from here who will sail on the S. S. Kungsholm from New York city today, on the Masonic cruise of Nassau and Bermuda, to be away a week are: Mr. and Mrs. Mauritz Nickerson, Gustave A. R. (Norman), Norman V. Lamb, Emil A. Nygaard, Howard Young, Emil Johnson, Reginald S. Baldwin and John R. Hamre.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edwards have returned to their home in Meriden following a summer spent at Stony Creek.

The Ariston Club has set December 8 for the date of its proposed annual ball show in the First Congregational Church.

Miss Dorothy Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Bradley of Willford Avenue, underwent an operation for appendicitis last week in regard to the Monticuli club and Mr. Peterson on the activities of the club.

To paralyze the chains snuffed out by Mr. Patman consumers' turn their store.

There was a quickening of pulses in the Department of Agriculture the other day when press wires brought news to Washington that Farmer Otto Gray, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, had developed a breed of midget cows.

Here at last, it seemed to some AAA planners, was an answer to the "why not midget cotton plants to eliminate the annoying surplus of cotton; half-sized hogs, ears of corn, potatoes, etc.?"

They asked themselves: Here, indeed, seemed the answer to the ever normal granary problem without the need for large of reference, marketing quotas, export subsidies and farm regimentation.

But lo! The cloud with the silver lining suddenly drenched their hopes with rain. Farmer Gray's midget cow only eats half as much hay and actually may be a competitor of his full-sized cow.

So now it seems that Farmer Gray is to be accused of nothing but a reason against the AAA. Agricultural experts were quick to point out that a full crop had grown before, this incorporation of non-cooperating farmers would be a still greater production with less effort.

Talk, talk, Farmer Gray, we are told, the theories that Utopia is not to that direction!

HERE AND THERE Without making the Department has lifted its ban against love birds on air transport ships. The ban was placed to stop the spread of parasites.

Now the Dies committee is setting out to expose other alien propaganda fusions, Nazism, Fascism, etc. It is hoped that Congress will provide the funds for the inquiry to go the whole way in developing the extent to which these foreign "isms" are being propagandized in this country.

The sentiments of all thoughtful Americans have been reflected by Charles R. Hook, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, who said in a letter to Representative Dies:

"Those who are behind such movements should be forced to stand before the public and receive the judgment of the people. If they are industrialists, doctors, teachers, ministers, or political dilettantes, let their names be registered in the official records of your committee."

AMENDING THE WAGNER ACT From many sides comes evidence of the need for amending the Wagner Labor Relations Act at the next session of Congress and straightening out the tangled employer-employee relations which the act and its confused administration has caused.

In one day's newspapers came the demand of the head of the Metal Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor for a change in the law.

"Both the law and the personnel (of the Board) must be changed," said John P. Frey, one of the Federation's spokesmen. And, at the same time the Federal Court of Appeals at Portland, Ore., was refusing a petition of the Labor Relations Board because of its queer ways of reaching conclusions.

The Court remarked that the Board had relied for its conclusions on a "novel method" of procedure consisting of "statements made by dissatisfied employees, although, in specific instances, this evidence was modified or eliminated by admissions on cross examination. On the other hand, testimony by company officials which disputed the charges even where apparently corroborated, was invariably disregarded wherever there was a conflict in evidence."

That type of law and that type of Board rulings will never make for security in employment relations.

Laurels Anticipate Hard Grid Struggle Against Eagles

Hamden High Gridders Here Saturday Green Wave Eleven

Branford High Team In Great Shape For Non-League Contest

Knechtmen To Make Strong Bid At Defeating Strong Hamden Combine—Visitors Hold Slightly Better Record Than Locals, But Margin Is Very Slim—Contest Will Be At 2:30 At Hammer Field

Not a bit discouraged by last week's defeat at the hands of Stratford, Coach John Knecht's Branford High School gridders will make a very strong bid at defeating the Hamden eleven when the Hamdenites come to Hammer Field Saturday afternoon in a non-league contest starting at 2:30. The visitors have a fairly good club which has not made such a greater showing than Branford so far.

Laurels Beat Lenox Eleven In Third Game

The sturdy Branford Laurels won a 7 to 0 victory over the New Haven Lenox team at Hammer Field last Sunday afternoon before a small crowd. The only score of the game came near the end of the second period as the result of an intercepted pass by "Killer" Torrell on the opponents 20-yard line and raced down along the sideline for the touchdown. He also converted for the extra point.

The opening quarter was rather slow, as both teams put up a strong defensive but showed nothing in the way of offensive power. In the second half the Green Wave dominated the play as they threatened to tally twice, but their offensive bogged down before reaching the double-stopping line. Coach Knecht was surprised to see the entire Lenox team, under the wing of Sokolowsky and Harrison, show more drive and power than they have shown all season. With the hard hitting Panazol in the lineup, teamed with "Killer" Torrell, the Branford Laurels will start going places this Sunday.

Dartmouth - Brown Game, Will Be Sensational Standout

Ready For Brown Bear After Defeating Princeton Tigers, 23 To 0 Saturday—Big Contest At Hanover

(Special to the Review) Hanover, N. H.—An Eastern gridiron clash of major importance took place Saturday when the Dartmouth football team meets an aroused Brown University eleven from Providence, Rhode Island. For the first time in ten years, the Bruins' team strong enough to pin the Indians in defeat.

Playing Brown as the second major game on its schedule, the Big Green grid machine is still having its problems finding capable replacements for the line. Coach Barthelemy has been driving his team all day in an effort to build up reserves.

Champion Lewis Getting In Shape For Al Gainer

Stopped In New Haven Tuesday Evening To Meet Al Gainer October 21st

(Special to the Review) John Henry Lewis, the heavy-weight champion, who will defend his title against Al Gainer, New Haven challenger, at the Arena on Friday night, October 21, was in the city from Pittsburgh Tuesday morning.

The champion was preceded by his Manager, Gus Greenlee, two sparring partners, "Big" Thompson and Honeyboy Jones, and Chief Frank Sutton. The party stopped for time in New Haven and then returned to Pittsburgh where Lewis has established his training camp.

Last reports from Pittsburgh, J. Henry Lewis was down to 170½ pounds and should have little trouble making the light heavyweight limit of 175 pounds. Al Gainer, who seldom tips the beam over 170 will be down to his normal fighting weight of 168 pounds.

Gainer is working out daily for the title battle at the Elm City gym with James J. Johnson and will have Phil Johnson added to his sparring staff today.

Andy Niederster and Low Raymond, co-promoters of the championship bout, report a heavy demand for the best tickets and say that everything looks promising for a record-breaking house.

Backers of the West Haven Eagles are predicting a two touchdown victory for their team, but it is hard to see where they have any basis for such optimism. In last Sunday's game the Laurels showed a sturdy defense that makes it seem unlikely that the West Haveners are going to push them around very much.

That date Dartmouth has taken the measure of the Rhode Island team 15 times with Brown adding 10 more victories. The lone tie, 10-10, came in 1886. Since the series was resumed in 1925 after a lapse of 5 years, Dartmouth has scored 116 points to 0 for Brown in three games. But when Tuse McLaughry leads his men onto the field, it will be a Bear of a different color. And the collective Dartmouth face will do well to escape without bearing the tinge of the scarlet from the surrounding hills.

Conn. State Plays Maine Saturday

Coach J. O. Christian Looks For Tough Battle With State Main University Gridders, Saturday

(Special to the Review) The Connecticut State College Coaching staff has every reason to be happy about the results of the athletic contests to date. Over the past week end Coach J. O. Christian's Varsity Football squad turned in their second victory by defeating Mass. State College, 19-0. The season record now stands two wins and no losses. In spite of the victory Christian was disappointed with the drive and precision of his team, handicapped by the loss of Wilfred Roberts of Norwich and of Arnold Schwolsky of West Hartford, both of whom have been called upon for signal calling duties; the team appeared ragged and uncertain in their offense. Christian was encouraged by the performance of several new men who were thrust into the line-up in an endeavor to make an improvement. Henry Juan of Greenwich and Bill Blythe of Eastford at the tackle position and Stanley Papanos of West Hartford at guard along with Henry Koch, and from Waterbury showed marked improvement and should make strong bids for the starting positions in the University of Maine game to be played at Orono, Maine Saturday.

At the present time the State traveling squad will probably be composed of Coach Christian, Assistant Coach Van Bibber, Trainer Carl Mann, and Manager Marshall Richards along with thirty players. The squad will leave Storrs at 8:00 o'clock Friday morning and will stay overnight in Waterville, Maine, before going on to Orono the next morning.

The Maine team is the strongest team to be met by State to date although they have so far only one should be the greatest game of the season excepting the Rhode Island game to be held at Storrs on Nov. 5. The probable starting lineup for Connecticut will be: Panchera, right end; Koskowsky, right tackle; Robinson, right guard; Gordon, center; Monnier, left guard Juan, left tackle; Peterson, left end; Waltman, quarterback; Posner, right halfback; Robert Donnelly, at left halfback; and Schwolsky at fullback.

Varsity Cross Country Teams Wins Coach Ivan Fagua who divides his time as backfield coach of the Varsity Football team with his duties as head coach of Cross Country has started. His charges so far have defeated Northeastern and M. I. T. in the past two week ends. Saturday they again won. W. P. J. Stevens over M. I. T. Bob Whetton of Putnam, Merrill Johnson of Winsted, and John Osborn of Woodbridge came in first on a triple tie to garner victory for State.

Soccer Team Fares Badly Conn. State's young soccer coach, John C. Squitieri, who came to State from Springfield College last year is not discouraged about the team's losses to Wesleyan, 8-0 and to Mass. State, 4-0, during the past week ends. He knows that his team will improve sufficiently to win at least a few of the remaining games on his schedule.

Branford High Goes Down To 12 To 0 Defeat

The Stratford high school team showed that its victory over Branford high was no flash in the pan at Hammer Field last Saturday with Branford as the victim. Stratford entirely outclassed the Knechtmen in practically every department of the game to win the 12-0 decision before some five hundred fans.

The Stratford score was made in the third quarter when fullback, Bova after three line plays scored the first tally of the game. The second touchdown came in the closing minutes of the game when the Branford team seemed to be pretty much out of the game. Bova repeated his former tactics and went around the field for the final tally. Stratford failed to convert both times.

THE MOVIE GUYED

Twenty young Chinese doing the "big apple" in a Shanghai cafe sounded the signal for Clark Gable and Myrna Loy to go back to work in their seventh picture together. With praises for their recent work in "Test Pilot" still ringing in their ears, Gable and Miss Loy began their new co-starring roles in "Too Hot To Handle," the story of daring newsreelmen covering epic news event around the world, Friday Oct. 14 at the Collego Theatre for the second big week.

The opening scenes of their new picture were filmed in a replica of a bamboo-latticed cocktail lounge in Shanghai's International Settlement, with Gable filming the "Big Apple" for one of his newsreels. Miss Loy's role is that of a courageous flyer who first meets Gable when she crashes her plane while landing in China.

From Shanghai ruins, the action swings swiftly across the Pacific to bustling New York, then to serenity of a Pennsylvania farm and finally Amazonian jungles to rescue Miss Loy's brother, a missing flyer.

Walter Pidgeon plays the role of Gable's rival for news shots and Miss Loy's affections, Walter Connolly is seen as Gable's boss and Leo Carrillo has the role of the stars' soundman, the remainder of the cast includes Johnny Hines, Virginia Weidler, Betsy Ross Clarke, Henry Kolker, Willie Fung and Pat O'Connor.

The 2nd Big Feature on the same program is "The Gladiator" with Joe E. Brown and Man Mountain Dean in one of the greatest laugh riots of the year.

East Haven High School Notes
During the course of the year, many art projects will be undertaken. The most important will be painting landscapes in oils and coloring pictures with pastel chalk. An interesting project to be carried on by art students who show unusual artistic ability will be the painting of several murals to be hung in various rooms of the school. At present thirteen students are working on designs for the Pioneer. The most symbolical as well as the best designed cover will be chosen for the 1939 classbook.
Miss Mary E. Sharon of the High School Commercial Department has been appointed to succeed Thomas A. Murray, who resigned at the close of school last June, as business advisor of the monthly school publication, the "Comet." Miss Sharon is experienced in student news-

During the homeroom period today, Student Council representatives were elected, one girl and one boy from each room. The 1938-39 senior representatives are Jennie Rocco and Maurice Sarasohn—210, Virginia Dohna and Henry Crosby—212, Barbara Hastings and Jack Lynch—204, May Johansson and Larry Belanger—308. Juniors include Marilyn Priest and Donald Hawthorne—312, Bernice Carlson and Guillo Moltis—209, Gloria Gallo and Edward Reynolds—201, Eleanor Friscoe and Leslie Tipping—103, Carolyn Wheeler and Jack Mintz—205.

Sophomores are Jane Thompson and George Sabine—305, Marlon Laidke and Bernard Gimple—301, Doris Jeanette and William McGuire—207, Mildred Jones and Dino Pionzio—211, Loretta Simon—306, Fresh men include Joseph Rocco—306, Gloria Palmieri, Justine Rose—304, Patricia FitzPatrick and Billy Clancy—302, Phoebe Lang and Robert Taylor—131, Dorothy Fitzsimmons and Robert Coe—309. These students were chosen for their good leadership, mental alertness, intelligence and expected contributions to benefit the Student Government.

Following the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, held on Thursday, Oct. 6, with Mrs. Henry Crosby presiding, the Entertainers' Club presented a program with Malcolm Douglass as Master of Ceremonies. The program included a song by Genevieve Stephenson; a tap dance by Virginia Ann MacArthur; a harmony duet by Barbara Hastings and Betty Danielson; a tap dance by Radley Clemens; an oration, John Scallia; a piano solo by Ed Simon; and a tap dance by Laura Jane Adams. The entertainment was in the hands of production manager, Virginia Dohna, and stage managers, John Messina and Kenneth Bissell.

the legislature and did so with considerable success. He will undoubtedly be renominated.

Abel Jacobs, who was also elected to the last general assembly, is not expected to be a candidate this year, and a number of names have already been heard as his possible successor on the ticket. Among these are R. A. Watson, present court probator officer, and an active leader in Christ Church parish activities; Judge Arthur T. Connor of the town court; and Bertram Well, member of the county bar and well known Legionnaire.

Plans for one of the largest Democratic Rallies ever held here is scheduled for October 29th in the town hall. Prominent speakers are being engaged by Bertram Well.

At a meeting of the Democratic town committee tonight in the Democratic club rooms candidates will be picked for the caucus Monday night to choose nominees for representatives in the general assembly and for justices of the peace.

Pontiac Skill In The Design Of 1939 Cars

Pontiac engineers have displayed skill and originality in the design of three new lines of cars for 1939 that combine the height of fashion and good taste in modern streamlining and rich appointments with important mechanical improvements that feature Duflex rear springs as the greatest engineering achievement.

The Quality Six, a newcomer to the line, is designed for large production at a low price. With five body models (Two and four-door sedans, business and sport coupes, and station wagon) of 100 inches overall length, it digs deeper into the lower price field than any previous Pontiac.

The DeLuxe Six, with the same engine but longer chassis than the Quality Six, comes in five more finely appointed bodies. A cabriolet with two coupes and two sedans constitute the line. Overall length of 106 1/4 inches makes it the longest six by four inches Pontiac has ever built.

The DeLuxe Eight with its famous smooth running and economical straight eight engine, will embrace the same five body styles as the DeLuxe Six.

In the appearance of the three lines we find complete modernization in the styling of hood, radiator, fenders and body. Continuing the Silver Streak through the center of hood and radiator for the
