Yale University Loaned Two Valuable Beakers By Congregationalists

Curved Lipped Communion Cups Were Gifts Of Lieut. Samll Stent And James Barker, Esq. To First Congregational Church.

Two priceless Communion cups have recently come to light in Branford.

Missing for many years, parishioners of the First Congregational Church long ago gave up all hopes of their recovery.

Loaned now by the church to Yale University they are on exhibit permanently.

The University makes this record by E. Alfred Jones;

The Old Silver Of American Churches—Branford, Connecticut, Congregational Church. Founded in 1844. Two plain beakers with straight sides, curved lips and moulded bases. One is inscribed: The Gift of Lieut. Samll Stent to the first church in Branford. Height 4 7/8 in. Maker's Mark.....for Geo. Hanners of Boston (circa 1809-1740); Lieutenant Samuel Stent, the donor, was the son of Eleazer Stent, a prominent man, and one of the original proprietors of this town of Branford, and his wife, Sarah Butler. He was born March 5, 1878, and was an ensign and lieutenant of the train band in this town. In his will, dated September 21, 1736, and proved November 22, 1736, he bequeathed property to his wife, Martha, and to various family connections. He was donor of a silver beaker to the Congregational Church at

4-H Gardeners Favor Carrots

Time lapse photograph of the night blooming cereus and century plants as well as the common dandelion were shown last evening in Foxon Grange Hall by Garry Miles.

Mr. Miles is poultry and gardening specialist of Connecticut State College and met with New Haven County 4-H leaders last evening to discuss quality gardens for the coming season.

With him was Warren Brockett who made valuable suggestions in 4-H gardening work.

Mrs. Terry Morehouse from Short Beach was present and Rudolph Kneuer, leader of the Branford 4-H Flower and Vegetable club, told of the experiences of his group of 15.

Members were instructed in the use of insect fighting methods and

Thousand Dollar Award Given To John C. Lyons

Sometime ago the General Electric Company sponsored a national "New American Home" building contest for houses built in 1938.

Although 20 awards were presented by the company John C. Lyons, 40 Birch Street, Marblehead Mass. is the only New Englander to receive a cash prize of $1,000.

Mr. Lyons was graduated from the Swampscott High School in 1926, from Boston University in 1931 and the University of Grenoble in France in 1931. He had no interest in architecture until about 1934.

Although but a short time in architecture he has designed and remodeled 25 houses.

He is married to the former, Barbara Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Averill Place. Pictures of the prize winning houses appears in the spring issue of House Beautiful-Building Manual.

The design has a compact, simple highly workable plan. It has much of the classic in it but entirely up-to-the-minute.

Many Artists Participate

The fourth recital of the Sunday afternoon series being given in Chrst Church in East Haven, under the direction of Harold B. Grist, organist, will be presented March 26 at 4 p. m. Two artists new to those who have attended the series to date will make their first appearance.

Sylvester Matisse, baritone, winner of the 1936 R. C. A. contest for young singers and son of George Matisse, well known baritone of La-Scala and Covent Garden Opera Houses, and of the Opera Comique Paris; and Clyde Allen, violinist, graduate of the Julliarde school, New York, who has appeared as soloist with the Syracuse Symphony Orchestra. Two favorites of the past season will again appear, Mrs. Lillian Wood, contralto soloist of St. Paul's church, New Haven, and Miss Anita Brookfield, harpist of the New Haven Symphony Orchestra. Miss Marven Bevan, of Larchmont, N. Y., will act as accompanist for Mr. Allen, and Arthur Frantz of New Haven will accompany Mr. Matisse. The next and final recital of the series will be presented May 14, at which time the Berman String Quartet of New Haven will be the featured artists.

There's a new building under construction at the Whipple turkey farm, Pine Orchard Road.

Easter Seals Aid Cripples

To bring a fuller, healthier life to the physically handicapped of the State, the Connecticut Society for Crippled Children has opened its annual sale of Easter seals. Walter H. Palmer, chairman of the local committee, announced that the sale will continue through Easter Sunday and that the goal for the State is $20,000, approximately twenty-five per cent larger than the total raised last year. This sum represents the minimum amount necessary to carry out all the projects planned by the Society on behalf of the physically handicapped children and adults of Connecticut.

The Society has been enlarging the scope of its activities during past years and, in 1938, carried on its most extensive program in history. The entire program is financed through funds raised through the sale of Easter seals. In addition to supplying medical treatment and orthopedic appliances to those who vitally need them, the crippled children's organization is spending an increasing amount of time in

Hardware Store Changes Hands

The M. A. Germond Hardware Store, of 319 Main Street, East Haven, has changed hands.

Brent Barker of Branford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barker of 81 Cedar Street is the new proprietor.

Mr. Barker has to his credit five years service with Montgomery Ward, and Hardware division. He is graduate of Dartmouth University, class of 1934.

New Haven Gas Light Company appliances will be featured and a collection department for the new company will be maintained in cooperation with Mr. Chester Norback who has been with the company for the past seven years.

For the convenience of the public Mr. Barker's store will be open every evening.

Rotary Hears Trades Talk

Emmett O'Brien, director of Boardman Trade School, New Haven, and a member of the New Haven Rotary Club, was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Branford Rotary Club Monday noon.

Mr. O'Brien discussed the value of trade education and its importance to the community as well as the student. Using as his subject "The Place of the Trade School in New England."

Lewis Warner was in charge of the program.

There were 46 present at the meeting. Visiting Rotarians were Karl G. Knabenschuh, Harry A. Collier and Oscar Conrad, all of New Haven. Vice-president William E. Hitchcock presided at the meeting.

Organized To Help All, Especially Young People, To A Greater Knowledge By Assisting Them In Travel Over Bicycle Trails, Footpaths and Byways.

"Hi Butch!" "Hello Spike!"

The boys first met in a New Hampshire hostel over a breakfast of fresh milk and eggs-and bananas. "Butch" always managed on his dollar a day allowance to have bananas for breakfast.

The older boy headed south with the American Youth Hostel Chain through Pennsylvania but the younger lad preferred hosteling through New England chain.

It was after a sound night's sleep at the Gillis Hostel in Foxon that the paths of the pair again crossed, this time over the wash tub where "Butch" was struggling with a pair of socks and "Spike" a light weight sweater.

"Hi Butch!" "Hello Spike!"

While the wash was drying the hostellers looked over the summer

Will Address Accountants

A joint meeting of the Purchasing Agents Association of Connecticut and The New Haven Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants will be held on Tuesday, March 28th, at the Hotel Garde. The speaker will be Hudson B. Hastings, Professor of Economics, Yale University. His subject will be money and its uses. Professor Hastings graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1907 and attended Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration in 1914 and 1915. He was Professor of Applied Economics, Reed College from 1915 to 1920; Research Economist, Pallak Foundation from 1920 to 1923; Executive Secretary, Research Council National Monetary Association 1920-1923. Since 1925 he has been Professor of Economics at Yale University. He is a member of many national economic and monetary committees and a director of the Connecticut Economic Council. While Professor Hastings is a recognized authority in the highly technical field of economics and monetary policy he has the happy faculty of making his talks intensely interesting to any audience. The meeting will be preceded by a dinner at 6:30 p. m.

Autoist Slugged By Hitch Hiker

Rather than strike and possibly kill a hitch hiker, Stephen Bombolski, 45, of 112 South Montowese Street is a patient in Grace Hospital suffering from a brain concussion.

Details are not quite clear in the mind of the victim but yesterday he told this story.

Coming over the Pine Orchard road a man stepped in front of his car and forced entry. Bombolski recalls tucking forty cents wrapped in a dollar bill into a slit in the upholstery. He had taken this precaution on lonely roads on previous occasions.

The hitch hiker demanded money. Bombolski offered his watch which was refused. He has no recollection of having struggled with the man but the car was ransacked and the floor covered with mud.

How he managed to drive home and into the garage is a mystery for he had been knocked unconscious over his wheel having been struck square in the face by a heavy blunt instrument.

Stress Need Of Adult Education

Franklin Robinson, speaking Tuesday night at the Short Beach Parent-Teacher Association meeting said that every child has the right to a good home and the kind of family love that is important to forming character.

The acquisition of knowledge, he said, starts at birth. That parents may set a good example he advised program chairmen to make every meeting an educational meeting and suggested a list of year books, leaflets, books and literature on the subject of child welfare.

Because of the illness of Mrs. Victor Hutchinson, Mrs. Herman Lehr presided.

Mrs. D. W. Owens reported on the county meeting held in New Haven Monday night and brought back the information that the summer conference is scheduled June 6 and 7 in the Griswold Hotel Grotton.

Miss Helen Robinson, a student at New Haven State Teachers' College was given a few minutes in which to ask members and guests to weigh carefully the matter of closing the New Haven and the Willimantic colleges and requested letters be sent to representatives objecting to the plan.

Following the regular program Mr. Owen E. Baird of New Haven told of the coming New Haven Day at the World's Fair in New York and showed the buildings in the process of construction.

Some idea was conveyed by the sound picture of the stupendous amount of time and money spent to make this fair a perfect picture of the World of Tomorrow.

Attorney and Mrs. T. Holmes Bracken of Short Beach announced the birth of a daughter Wednesday morning in New Haven Hospital. Mrs. Bracken was the former Amelia Dombrowski.

Summer Hosteling Is Fun!

William Gillis Hostel in Foxon Applying For Fourth Year Charter—Being Repaired After "Big Blow"—Inexpensive Over Night Stop For Youths From 6 to 90.

Two hundred fifty happy souls found their way to Foxon last summer.

From Equador they came, from California, Montana, Missouri, Florida, Canada and Germany.

Mr. William Neilson, field worker from the A. Y. H. headquarters, Northfield, Mass. visited the local place last week on a tour of inspection and organization. In another month, after hurricane repairs are complete, Mr Neilson will make another inspection in anticipation of granting the William Gillis Hostel its charter for the fourth consecutive year.

Supervision and administration is important for 4,890 youth passes have been issued and 5,570 adult passes. In this vicinity 75 applications have been accepted.

Many Dropped From WPA Roll

Results of a statewide check-up of the citizenship of those employed by the Works Progress Administration have been announced by State Administrator Vincent J. Sullivan. A total of about 1,300 was found on the state's rolls who could not sign affidavits of citizenship, all of whom will be separated from their WPA employment as of Mar. 5. This is in accordance with the terms of the 1939 amendment to the Emergency Relief Act, which makes necessary citizenship affidavits before WPA employment may be gained. Actually, employment ceased for these workers on Friday, March 3, due to the fact that pro-

Alice B. Wilson Is Installed As Worthy Matron

The world was on parade Tuesday night at the Girls' Friendly meeting in Trinity Church when James Bunting of the Junior College of Commerce and Owen E. Baird, president of the New Haven Advertising Club showed a sound motion picture preview of the New York World Fair.

The picture was photographed last fall but included such impressive buildings as the Hall of Fashion, Court of Sports, Tower of Research, fire department, fun and amusements, garden and recreations.

Production and distribution centers were almost complete and were but a small part of the scheme of peace to build a better place in which to live in the World of Tomorrow.

WEDDING PLANS

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Irene Holt to Mr. Charles Henry Howd, of Riverside East Haven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howd of Stony Creek. The ceremony will take place April 2, at 3 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, of Short Beach.

Mrs. Martin will be matron of honor and Miss Evelyn Norton of New Haven will be bridesmaid.

Mr Howd has chosen for his best man, Leonard Murray of East Haven.

Lanny Ross Will Sing In Concert In Woolsey Hall

The most versatile, timely and truly popular symphonic program in the history of New Haven music is the triumph scheduled for the seventh concert of the current series by the combined New Haven Symphony and Civic Orchestra on March 27 at Woolsey Hall. It is a surprise program in several respects. When plans for this season's series were originally announced last September no mention was made of the soloist and the guest conductor who will be here for the occasion.

The Orchestra management was not sure that arrangements could be completed this year. But now the good news is out.

Lanny Ross, the man who pre-

THE SOONER THE BETTER

A SENATOR'S EDITORIAL

It would be difficult to add any clarity to the statement of Senator Pat Harrison on the question of governmental fiscal affairs. Granting that he is qualified as an expert on the subject (he is Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee) his statement is therefore reprinted here. As a citizen and taxpayer, it is worth your while to read; in fact, to memorize:

"The government's fiscal picture must be carefully scanned, and that doesn't mean next year, but now—and it should be done through clear vision and not through colored lenses.

"We are confronted with a budget which calls for over 10 billion dollars in appropriations for this next fiscal year... we have a national debt of 40 billion dollars... taxes are now so heavy that to increase them would add additional burdens upon American industry and the American people. Additional taxes would act as a deterrent to the revival of business.

"I appreciate the difficulty of the task, but if everyone connected with the operation of Government, whether in the executive or legislative departments, will realize the serious fiscal situation confronting us, and counsel together and cooperate in mapping out a plan, and unflinchingly and without political consideration work toward that end, we can accomplish results that will bring hope and encouragement to our people and financial stability to our Government.

"If immediate and unified plans are not laid, and enormous and unprecedented expenditures are continued, with the national debt mounting, economic confusion and chaos are inevitable.

"I have no confidence in the economic philosophy that we must spend ourselves out of this economic disaster."

REAL PROPAGANDA

"Twice, recently, ships loaded with refugees from Germany have touched at Baltimore on their way to other ports. On both occasions the something that happened. The passengers, given shore leave, have made a rush to the Baltimore restaurants to eat butter. The reason is that at home most of them had not seen butter for months, or years, so when they found that any amount was available here they went wild.

"The speeches of the statesmen, the charts and graphs of the economists, and the statistics of the military experts are sometimes hard for the ordinary man to understand, so frequently he disregards them and misses their implications altogether. But tell him that under Nazi rule ordinary folk are not allowed to have butter, and you have told him something significant, something that he understands, something that gives him a solid, tangible reason for opposing Nazi rule. Absence of butter is propaganda that works.

WORKING FOR UNCLE SAM

A current report of the U. S. Civil Service Commission shows there were 917,300 persons holding Federal government jobs last December. This is the highest figure on record, and does not include the army, navy, CCC, WPA or PWA.

Thus, the complexities of the Washington government are well revealed by the fact that it takes about a million persons to handle them.

"Then if the army, navy, CCC, WPA and other government projects are included, it is estimated that one of every eight of America's working population receives his pay from the Federal tax till. That means that the other seven must somehow turn the taxes to pay the salary of the one and at the same time contribute to the support of State, county and local governmental agencies.

So it is not enough that a man earn a living for himself and family. No matter what his wages—whether they are sufficient to buy all the things he and his family would like to have—he must still give up part of his earnings to help meet the ever expanding payroll in Washington.

or than themselves. It was the hope of those who support neutrality legislation that if it was understood that this country would not lend its support to war, steps would be taken to negotiate a settlement, not for the appeasement of the dictators, but for the establishment of reasonable justice for all nations.

Today, the opportunity for such a policy seems at least for the time being to be lost. If, then this country, neither by fighting in the World War nor by its ef-

WASHINGTON SNAPSHOTS

By JAMES PRESTON

Dame Rumor is carrying the word around Washington that several of Capital officials are quietly and privately recuperating from a base case of jitters occasioned by the Supreme Court's rebuke of the National Labor Relations Board's decision recently on the recuperating list are the middle-of-the-road officials who have been credited with quieting the liberal element of officialdom.

Reason for the jitters, according to the story, is that the Court's ruling on the sit-down strike so angered the liberals that they wanted to throw care to the winds and breakback at the Court again.

The middle-of-the-roads, remembering the public's attitude toward their colleagues that another attack would be dangerous. So it was that heated words which almost hit the headlines went up only as mutterings behind closed doors in the inner chambers.

Incidentally, when the argument was at the boiling point, one official issued a statement to the press praising the Court's decision and to put himself on record (just in case) and to make it all the more difficult for the angry ones to strike up a different tune.

When picket lines were established around all of Washington's principal hotels last week it caused considerable embarrassment for several of the people. Strangely, most of the embarrassments were borne by labor union officials instead of by Congressmen and other officials who live in the hotels.

The Congressmen were perturbed at first and pickets confidently expected that the legislators would move from the streets and immediately. However, very few, if any moved. Thus, the union officials were embarrassed to see Congressmen settling the example for the general public in ignoring the picket lines.

The situation was particularly ticklish for one Senator. He was one of the authors of the National Labor Relations Act, and is a resident of one of the hotels. To avoid the picket line, he used the garage entrance of the hotel.

THE ENEMY WITHIN

This column has come to the attention of the enemies of Democracy within our borders are not the Nazi Bunds or the active Communists but the indifference of the many of our own American citizens to our form of government.

The real enemies of Democracy are those too many who think the movie "Dark Victory" has helped tremendously toward making it a better movie—one which will be remembered for many years.

In 1934 when Tullulah Bankhead and Earle Larimore appeared in "Dark Victory" the public was not very enthusiastic about the play. As you may remember, it held for fifty one performances. Perhaps if the screen version were used it may have been a bigger success.

The story centers about Judith Travers (Betty Davis), and Geraldine Fitzgerald has helped very much toward making the story more believable and realistic, as well as emotional. We need not make any apology for our tears—let them flow.

The story centers about Judith Travers (Betty Davis), who has but ten months to live. Dr. Frederick Steele (George Brent), her physician, tells her that she has but ten months to live. He tells her that she has but ten months to live. He tells her that she has but ten months to live.

So it can be seen that an American dictatorship would affect the personal lives of all. It is up to us to educate these people and show them how to sift the true from the false. We have little to fear from the dictators who lead the people to forsake Democracy. As long as there are sufficient people who are unimpaired so long do they constitute our real enemies within.

Laurels For "Dark Victory"

By MARY PAUL

Very often when fine plays and novels are adapted to the screen, the outcome is usually a disappointment to many theatergoers.

In my estimation I believe that the few changes in the screen version of "Dark Victory" have helped tremendously toward making it a better movie—one which will be remembered for many years.

erations, succeeding Irvin W. Day. A. J. Campbell of Waterbury from general executive duties to vice-president; A. V. S. Lindsay of Hartford from sales manager to vice-president in charge of sales.

Mr. Knowlton has been a vice-president of the Connecticut Light & Power company since 1927, the year after he became associated with the company. His entire business career has been spent in the public utility field. Prior to joining the company as assistant to the president, he served in executive capacities with several utility companies in New York and Pennsylvania.

He is a graduate of Cornell University and has held various positions of responsibility in the affairs of the New England and national associations of the electric and gas industries.

Mr. Campbell announced the appointment of Charles J. Allen, manager of the company's Waterbury Division, to newly created post of Director of Public Relations in this capacity. Mr. Allen will be responsible for customer relations, publicity, advertising, personnel, industrial relations, claims and employee welfare. R. P. Stacy of the company's Hartford office was appointed executive assistant.

The "Flecker" restaurant, a famous Prague tavern, is probably the only restaurant in the world that does not serve food, according to the World Travel Bureau at Rockefeller Center. Patrons of this restaurant come for its black beer which has a tradition of excellence dating back to 1409 when the tavern was founded. Patrons bring their own sandwiches, carefully wrapped in a newspaper, which they eat with the beer and eat their sandwiches.

Plains are being made for the annual ball of the Service Battery to be held the latter part of April.

The Branford Garden Club will have its April meeting April 6 in the library at 2:45 p. m. The speaker will be Mrs. Helen M. Upson who will talk on "Beauty Parade of North America's World Flowers". The public is invited to attend.

MUSIC

The guardian angels of music have favored Branford with a superior group of leaders in whose hands are developed the musical ambitions of its young.

Friday evening's high school broadcast was pleasing and ambitious, setting a high standard for future broadcasts in the series.

At an early age the Musical Art Society takes students of the art under its wing and guides them during a period of juvenile work developing the capacity of enjoying music.

As the child grows older and his training more serious he enters a Junior group. Here his appreciation of music is advanced still under the mentorship of the adult society.

Annual scholarship concerts provide sums of money each year toward the chosen career of a music student in the community.

All this the senior organization does for the love of music for the man that hath no music in himself.

Not is not moved with concord or sweet sounds.

In fit for reasons, stratagems, and spoils—Shakespeare.

ON FOREIGN POLICY

As confusion in Europe grows greater, so also does the need for America to think clearly and in terms of a few simple facts that we know. The struggle for imperial ambitions which is wracking Europe today was going on long before this democracy was founded. Should we permit ourselves to be embroiled in it, it may be going on long after this country ceases to exist as a democracy.

The situation in Europe today approaches again the situation of pre-war days when the Austrian, Hungarian Empire was intact and a close ally of Germany. With what purpose then did the American men die in the World War?

We succeeded in establishing the independence of certain small countries but we could not control the policies of the European powers and force them to carry out other parts of the American program which would have made it possible to preserve the independence of these little nations.

Neither today, even by sacrificing our young men to win a foreign victory, could we bring about conditions in Europe that would mean any kind of lasting peace. Only Europe can put the European house in order. What is happening today has long been prophesied by those who have urged a policy of adjustment among the great European powers. Had a policy of adjustment among the great powers been followed, the small countries, as statesmen in Czechoslovakia themselves have said, would not have needed to be sacrificed.

Even after Munich, had immediate steps been taken for a world conference based on recognition of the interdependence of nations and the unity of mankind the present situation might never have arisen. Instead, a mad race in armaments was at once begun, thus encouraging aggression by the dictators on powers weak-

Branford Review, Branford, Conn.

I have been following with considerable interest Mr. Howard Pate's column in the Branford Review the date of the foundation of Branford. Although the exact date of the first settlement may not be known it seems to me that a date for the establishment of Branford (Totoket then of course) as a town may be readily gained from a study of "The New Haven Colony" by Isabel MacBeath Calder, Yale University Press 1934. She gives the facts as ascertainable and what is of absolute value she authenticates each statement with references to the original sources.

Then there is Charles M. Andrews' "The Colonial Period of American History" vol. II, Yale University Press, 1936 which does the same thing in better form. Some even believe that a date for the first settlement of Branford may be gained from a study of "The New Haven Colony" by Isabel MacBeath Calder, Yale University Press 1934. She gives the facts as ascertainable and what is of absolute value she authenticates each statement with references to the original sources.

I take it for granted that both these books are in the Branford Library. They are certainly in the Yale Library of New Haven.

I hope you do not mind my writing to you in this way and I shall wait with interest for the next item in the Review.

All Star Game Set For Middlesex League This Season July 9th

Contest Will Be Played Between Northern and Southern Section Of State—Frank J. Kinney Chosen Supervisor Of Umpires—League Schedule Adopted—Season To Begin In Month Of May

At Meriden last Monday evening, the meeting of the Middlesex County Baseball League got under way and Frank J. Kinney was again appointed supervisor of umpires for the coming season. The schedule was adopted and on July 9 an All-Star game will be played between the northern and southern sections of the league.

The Towhills will again represent this town on the diamond this year and will start training earlier this year so that they may be at full strength when the season opens some where near the 15th of May.

It is believed that the same policy as was maintained last year will be in evidence with the Towhills playing eight or nine games at Hammett field on the road.

At Aspetuck, one of the best centers in the league, may once again do the receiving with Edgely will be the hurling. This year may also uncover some ex-high school material which is being trained at the local nine. Ward is expected to again cover first base duty. Jerry Carden may be induced to cover the second sack as Carden has turned in some sparkling plays while with the Branford Towhills. At shortstop may be Sokolowsky, the switch-hitter who has covered territory in last time and probably Opinski may be stationed at third base berth to complete in infield. The outfield is indistinct. Ernie Donofrio is the only one being scheduled to play there thus far.

Bill Terry Is Getting Very Good Breaks

If the New York Giants prospects ever become brighter than they are just now at their training camp in Louisiana, Bill Terry will certainly be afraid. A Giant team looking better than this one does at the moment would be too good to be true in three innings.

Trim Boy's Club To Win A. A. U. Hoop Title In New Haven Monday

Local Hoopsters To Compete in Saratoga, New York Tournament Tomorrow—Sokolowsky Outstanding In Win Over Boys' Club With 10 Points—Entire Team Preparing For Long Journey

A fast and brilliant East Haven Jeffs quintet put on a spirited fourth period spurt and then staved off a last minute rally by the New Haven Boys' Club team to gain a 45 to 31 victory that gave them their third New Haven County Journal-Courier A. A. U. basketball championship, before a captivated crowd at the Boys' Club gym Monday evening.

It was a nip and tuck affair in the first half that thrilled the crowd but in the last half the Jeffs finally shook-off the dust and started their long range guns booming to defeat the Boys Club. Late in the first period the New Haveners fighting with desperation in a rally directed by the Jeffs combined for a 10 point score, but were unable to turn back the sharpshooting Sokolowsky who swished the nets for 10 points, "Mink" Swirsky with nine and Joe Reslan with eight markers.

By virtue of their victory over the strong New Haven combine, they will travel to Saratoga, N. Y., to enter the tournament being held there beginning tomorrow night.

At Saratoga tomorrow night at 8:30, the Jeffs will meet Amsterdam, N. Y., in the opening round of the Saratoga Invitation Tournament. Manager, Heffernan, Coach

Morgan, soil chemist at the Station, and the sand culture are being tried by Gabriel Nuttle of the Botanical Department.

TIPS

The juice from half a lemon added to a cup of strong tea will generally relieve the most severe headache. After washing white silk stockings, dry them indoors and they will not turn yellow. The next time you serve a salmon loaf, serve with it creamed peas, this is a delightful combination. Before filling the middle with peanuts, spread them with a little olive oil. To remove mud stains from black silk or woolen goods, let the stains dry thoroughly then brush off as much as possible. Wash any remaining stains with a piece of flannel dipped in hot coffee to which a little ammonia has been added.

IT'S A FACT

The average auto dealer last year sold 92 new cars. There is a new improved washout for manufacturers to use on flour and sugar sacks to enable thirty housewives to convert these bags into dish towels and aprons. A new textile is made from soy beans. Bread is now made with two ounces of grapefruit juice to every pound of dough; through of green, half-yellow color, the bread is said to be more vitamin and food value and will stay fresh longer than ordinary bread.

The Young Child Cooks

Every child should have the opportunity of experiencing the fun of confidence which comes from the accomplishment of some new task. Do you remember the first take you ever made? It was a wonder and you remember your wonder to think you actually made it yourself. Children learn to cook early. In fact within their making simple recipes successfully as early as the first grade at school. An interest in the wholesome foods may be aroused by having the children prepare those with milk, fruits and vegetables and eggs; let the children also prepare a "sweet" now and then. Of course, mother needs to be around to teach her daughter (the sons needs) to be left out to use the measuring cup, the measuring spoons, and the equipment in the kitchen. Let the child prepare one of these simple recipes some Saturday for lunch.

COMMENT

SPORTS
By JOSEPH M. ZAFFINO

Although spring came into its own Tuesday, causing all sports fans to cast ideas of baseball, golf, tennis, swimming and the like into their heads, baseball continues to hold a major portion of the sports spotlight in town here with the A. A. U. tourney and the Saratoga tournament in New York which is to get under way tomorrow.

The East Haven Jeffs, (or Branford Big Five) earned a well-deserved victory with a powerful last quarter spurt to defeat the New Haven Boys' Club, 45 to 31 and take the A. A. U. basketball championship last Monday night.

By virtue of the win, the local combine headed by Captain "Mink" Swirsky, will start for Saratoga, N. Y., to meet the Amsterdam quintet in the opening tournament playoffs tomorrow night at 8:30.

As we toured around Harry Johnson's huge Outboard display room recently, suddenly what caught my eye was the big display of streamlined Outboard and Edo motors that would give any outdoor sportsman that feeling of the open waters and soft balmy breezes. Drop in sportsman and look 'em over.

After listening to an interesting talk on "Organization" last Friday night by a guest speaker the Outboard Club have to face another important meeting will be heard on Friday, March 31st and all interested are urged to attend.

At the Middlesex County Baseball League meeting in Meriden this week, rumors have it that a "Little All-Star" game will be played this season in that league between two teams from the Northern and Southern teams, July 9.

Two Branford top notch teams will bowl at the Cleveland Tournament Bowling Center on April 22.

"Here's a way we can bring MORE DOLLARS to Connecticut this year"

says Governor Raymond E. Baldwin

At least fifteen million people will visit the New York World's Fair in 1939. That means fifteen million people at Connecticut's doorstep. And it means a big opportunity for us to bring more dollars into Connecticut this year. Here's how: "Among these World's Fair visitors will be hundreds of thousands of our own friends, relatives and business acquaintances in other states. Let us do everything we can—by every means in our power—to have them visit Connecticut before or after they see the Fair. Or better still, to have them live in Connecticut during their vacations, and make their trips to the Fair from here! Our visitors will spend money here. They will buy food, clothing, amusement. They will share the cost of our government through the taxes they pay on gasoline, cigarettes and other purchases. They will help to create employment. And the dollars they spend here will help everyone—because what helps business helps us all. Furthermore, when our visitors arrive, let us so impress them with our country and old-fashioned New England hospitality that they will want to come to Connecticut again—and again! Virginia Bruce taking her young daughter to her very first motion picture show..... Judy Garland packing her grips for a two week vacation..... James Stewart attempting to outgag Director Van Dyke on the "It's A Wonderful World" set..... Frank Morgan preparing to celebrate a double twenty-fifth anniversary, twenty-five years of married life, and twenty-five years as an actor..... Claudette Colbert becoming a disciple of realism by really setting fire to her hat for a scene..... Clark Gable knee-deep in books and pamphlets pertaining to ranching.....

Johnny Weissmuller post-carding friends from the Tarzan location in Florida..... Billie Burke setting the pace in smart spring fashions for the rest of the actresses to follow..... Buddy Ebsen causing a near panic by showing up in the comedy-misery wearing a fantastic Indian make-up..... Jeanette MacDonald off on her concert tour following the completion of her new starring film "Broadway Serenade"..... Florence Rice one of the brightest lights at the annual Turg Ball..... William Powell busy reading the script of the new Thin Man story to go into production soon..... Annabelle Promising to make some old world cookies to distribute among the cast of "Maiden Voyage"..... Freddie Bartholomew visiting his many friends around the lot..... Mickey Rooney displaying a dashing wardrobe purchased during his recent New York trip.....

HOT TIP FOR THE WEEK:

The greatest thrill for an actor is to play a character who does all the things the actor himself has dreamed of doing. Which is Mickey Rooney's way of explaining exactly how his character of "Huckleberry Finn," which is now showing at the Loew Poll College Theatre for a 2nd Big Week.

He could go barefooted and fish, didn't bother about school, and in general did as he pleased, which means he did the things all boys want to, says Mickey. And that doesn't mean that he was spoiled, or shiftless or vicious. He just was allowed his own self expression. He expressed a great loyalty among other things in his attempt to smuggle a runaway salve to freedom. He expressed a great love when he saved the helpless from the swindlers. With "Huckleberry Finn" Mark Twain proved somewhat the same thing Father Flannagan proved in practice in his Boys Town; that there's really no such things as a bad boy.

Supporting Mickey Rooney are, Walter Connolly, William Frawley, Rex Ingram, Lynn Carver, and Jo Ann Sawyers

The 2nd big hit on this Hold Over Program is "Let Us Live" with Maureen O'Sullivan and Henry Fonda.

The sudden death of Curtis L. Palmer of Hotchkiss Grove occurred Monday following a heart attack. At the time he was stricken he was trimming the branches of a tree on the property of his sister, Mrs. E. M. Thayer with whom he had been making his home for the past 10 years. A rope around his waist saved him from falling to the ground.

He was 64 years of age and was born in Branford, a son of James Palmer and Mary Smith. He was a member of Widow's Son Lodge, No. 66, A. F. and A. M. Surviving him are one son and two daughters of New Britain; one sister, Mrs. E. M. Thayer of this place; and a brother Edward Palmer of Wichita, Kansas.

TASTY RECIPE FOR DATE COLE SLAW

3 cups shredded cabbage
1 cup pineapple diced
Lettuce
12 dates, sliced
French or mayonnaise dressing.
Soak cabbage in cold water until crisp. Drain thoroughly. Dice pineapple (canned pineapple may be used if fresh is not available), slice dates and add to dressing. Toss with two forks until well mixed. Serve in lettuce cups.

HOLDFAST GLOVES

Tires no longer have a monopoly on non-skid virtues. Now a leading rubber company has devised a new type of rubber glove which has small pads at the ends of the fingers, making it possible to grip dishes and glasses firmly and thus eliminate breakage. The gloves are made of such pliable rubber they permit perfect freedom of the hands for dish-washing and other household chores and reduce loss by breakage to a minimum.

QUEST SPEAKER

"Song of Years," by Bess Streeter Aldrich. The new novel by the author of "A Lantern in Her Hand". In this, her finest novel, the author tells a tender love story which unfolds against a memorable picture of pioneer life in Iowa. The period is from 1854 to 1865 and tells of the laughter and joy of living of the Martin family.

"Huntsman, What Quarry?" by Edna St. Vincent Millay. A new volume of lyrics by this famous author.
