Plan To Summer At Stony Creek

Stony Creek will be fairly seething with celebrities this season, not only on the theatre stage but in the audience as well. According to authoritative reports Spencer Tracy has taken an Island off Stony Creek where he and his family will spend the summer; Robert Young, another favorite Hollywood actor, will be located about three miles outside the community in his summer residence; Artie Shaw, famous band leader, will spend his leisure time in this locale. Katharine Hepburn is expected to attend the ppening of "Love Like Wildfire", the latest satire from the pen of her brother Richard, which will be precented by the Stony Creek Players Sinclair Lewis whose new comedy 'Angela is 22" will be given by the Players, will spend much of his summer in the community. Salvation Army Officials announce the Annual Maintenance which includes Short Beach, Pine Orchard, Stony Creck, and North Branford.

Frank J. Kinney will be chairman of the Campaign, and Charles N. Baxter will be treasurer. The following general committee will sup- HAS port the Campaign this year: Rev graduating class by vote of the B. Kenneth Anthony, Clarence I. Bradley, Gurdon Bradley, John E. Brainard, Raymond E. Pinkham, Mrs. Howard K. Prann, Charles Reynolds, Mrs. Mortimer Stanley, Miss Hazel M. VanWie and Mrs. J.

Frank J. Kinney, chairman, stated today: "I am happy to be of service to The Salvation Armywhat it stands for I have long admired, so have you. A great character-building force as well as a social institution, and the aid it renders eventually assists people to stand on their own feet.

Whenever there is suffering, the Army is there, carrying hope and cheer to the sick and poor and providing an open door for those in despair.

To continue its splendid work, I am approaching for the Army in-terested friends for the continuance of their support.

I have accepted the responsibility of this appeal, conscious of what it entails, with earnest hope for the furtherance of its fine work. I do hope you will respond generously. You will be interested to know that a portion of this money will be
