

STRICTLY LOCAL

PREVUES, VIEWS AND REVIEWS

BY PAUL H. STEVENS

A SEPARATE EAST HAVEN PROBATE COURT

East Haven is a part of the Greater New Haven Area and while we, as a community, take pride in our own civic, social and business interests, as well as we should, supporting them at all times to the best of our abilities, there are certain enterprises and activities, which in our opinion, can best be handled cooperatively with the other municipalities that make up our larger Greater New Haven Community.

Because we share in the service afforded by the hospitals, welfare organizations and eleemosynary institutions of Greater New Haven, we find it of mutual advantage to pool our funds with the New Haven Community Chest.

When the time comes for the installation of a modern sewage disposal system, we will undoubtedly find it advantageous to tie-in with the Greater New Haven plans.

No one would think of setting of separate water, transportation, lighting or other utilities here when our needs can be best served as a part of a larger area. Time was when we had our independent Telephone system in East Haven but our townspeople welcomed the merger with the Southern New England.

The centralization of our Postal System, whereby East Haven and other communities in and around New Haven are branches of the New Haven Postal District is another case in point, which has combined better service with efficiency of operation. Few would care to return to the old methods.

Now there is talk in some quarters of asking Legislative sanction to a proposal to separate East Haven from the New Haven Probate District. The New Haven Probate District embraces the city of New Haven and the towns of Hamden, Orange, Woodbridge, North Haven and East Haven, and the present Probate Court, centrally located in the New Haven City Hall, well-staffed and provided with vaults, hearing rooms, and chambers, is far better able to take care of our needs, we venture to say, than could a small, provincial Probate Court within the confines of our own town.

The trend today is toward district court systems, as for instance, our State Juvenile Court set-up, which has demonstrated the wisdom of such a plan. There may be good reasons why East Haven should be separated from the New Haven Probate District. We would like to hear what they are before we alter our opinion.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS FROM THE LOCAL ANGLE

Every parent having children in our East Haven schools will be interested in the series of articles currently appearing in THE NEWS. These articles, written by Supt. of Schools William E. Gillis, are timely, interesting, informative and educational. They began with the New Year, and will, we hope, continue for sometime as we know that our readers will value them. As we have pointed out on other occasions, it is our intention to make THE NEWS of as wide local appeal as possible. We feel that information of the kind Supt. Gillis is so well able to present, means much more to the fathers and mothers of our children here in East Haven than any amount of "syndicated" material such as is to be had in the daily press. Supt. Gillis knows our community, he knows the children in our schools, and he knows the parents. He can therefore deal with school problems from the local angle, the angle from which all of us view the educational system.

Because we believe every parent should read this series of articles by Supt. Gillis, we suggest that you tell your neighbors about them and that you mention them at Parent-Teacher meetings. If there are any questions you would like to have answered or if there are specific school problems you would like discussed, we are sure that Supt. Gillis will be glad to hear from you.

MEMORIAL TO COL. LOCKHART

Members of Harry R. Bartlett post, American Legion, are to be commended for their action at a post meeting Thursday night in setting up a fund making possible an annual Oratorical Contest among the students in the East Haven High school as a memorial to Colonel Charles E. Lockhart whose death occurred recently. Col. Lockhart headed the state committee which had charge of oratorical contests sponsored by Legion posts in many schools of the state and this activity had been close to his heart for several years. As an educator in the New Haven schools Col. Lockhart loved children and was never happier than when encouraging them. As a military man and war veteran he instilled in their developing minds an ardent spirit of patriotism and good citizenship. The oratorical contests will continue to do this. It is such a memorial as Col. Lockhart would have wanted.

A FRIENDLY, WELCOME VISITOR TO YOUR HOME

If you had taken the trouble, as we did, to count the names mentioned in last week's issue of THE NEWS you would have discovered a total of 239 of them in the first three and a half pages, which was the space allotted to East Haven in our arrangement of publication in combination with the Branford Review. That is what helps to make a home town paper interesting. We are all interested in knowing what other folk are doing, especially those who are our friends and neighbors. We want more names in our columns, items about what you and your family and friends are doing. If your boy or girl is home on a furlough let us hear about it. If you are entertaining guests from out of town it is a courtesy to them to let us tell about it. If you have an interesting idea for a "write-up", or if you have a suggestion concerning a "Personality" whom we can feature, we will be delighted to have you say so. Together we can make THE NEWS a friendly, welcome visitor to your home each week.

MRS. HUSTED DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

The death of Mrs. Charles Husted of 135 George street, occurred at her home Saturday evening following a long illness. Mrs. Husted is survived by her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Anne Rossi of East Haven, Mrs. Grace Robinson and Mrs. Blanche Gederman of Providence, R. I.; three sons, Frederick, John and Charles, the two former sons are in the armed forces; and six grandchildren. Mrs. Husted and her family have been residents of East Haven for the past 18 years. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning from the W. S. Clandy & Sons funeral parlors in Kirkham Avenue, and Requiem High Mass at 9 A.M. in St. Vincent de Paul's Church in Taylor avenue.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. REDMAN

The funeral services for the late Mrs. Emma L. Redman wife of George Redman of 699 Quinnipiac avenue, Fair Haven, were held here

Ted Grandshaw Back In France - Lt. Fasig Home

News From Our East Haven Servicemen In All Parts Of The World.

BY WILLIAM E. FAGERSTROM

PVT. TED GRANDSHAW '42 is in France at the present time on his way back to rejoin his outfit in Germany. TED received wounds in his chest and left side from shrapnel from enemy fire while acting as a forward observer with an armored infantry unit. TED has received the Purple Heart and was also awarded the Bronze Star for rescuing several soldiers on D-Day when their landing boat struck a mine and sank.

We had a nice chat with LT. HENRY FASIG '40 yesterday. HENRY has had much experience as a pilot of a B-24 Bomber and in his fifty missions over Europe has distinguished himself as an able aviator. Yes—he is glad to be back here with his family and looks forward to a happy time during his twenty-two days furlough.

SGT. NORMAN LEAVSTROM '39 received his basic training at Cochran Field, Ga. His next stop was Mississippi where he studied to learn more about airplanes in an airplane mechanical school. Next he went to factories to study planes and see their actual work and when he had passed all tests he went to Tennessee and has become a flight engineer. He is stationed there now, probably for several months. NORM has just been home on a furlough. He is married to former Miss Esther Anderson of Morris Cove and has a three months' old daughter.

We had an interesting letter from CPL. ALLEN JOHNSON '40 from Egypt. ALLEN says: "The old memories your letter brought back about the 1938 basketball team sure sounded good to me—JIMMY GLYNN '38 and BILL THOMSON '38 and all the rest. I, for one, got quite a bang out of watching them play ball. As for their present addresses—I plan to drop each one of them a line of two—and I certainly hope that they answer. This afternoon I bought a new polo pony and now my string amounts to two. I'm getting there but I think that will be the last one I'll buy."

RICHARD POWELL '43 took his boot training at Newport, R.I. From there he was sent to Brooklyn Navy Yard and then DICK went to Bath, Me., where he was on shore patrol. DICK went to Bermuda—then back to the states. He has seen much service overseas and was on furlough during Christmas. DICK is now in San Francisco waiting to go out again.

BOB CONFREY '45 took his boot training at Newport, R.I. After this he went to Little Creek, Va., for gunnery training. BOB was transferred to the S.S. Thomas Nelson and remained with his ship for eight months. After a sixteen day leave BOB was assigned to the S.S. Noah Webster. At the present time he has been transferred to the Sea Bees and is located at Camp Endicott, R.I. BOB now expects to go to Alaska.

BOB SAVAGEAN writes from England that he would like to continue his education even though he is in the Navy as he wishes to earn enough credits to receive a high school diploma. BOB says: "I am interested in taking up a correspondence course and any information you can supply will be appreciated very much. Being in the Navy has stopped my education and I really want a high school diploma." We have replied to BOB's letter and we will certainly do everything we possibly can to help him earn that high school diploma.

Monday afternoon in the funeral parlors of Norman V. Lamb. Rev. William G. West, officiated and interment was in Green Lawn Cemetery. Mrs. Redman who died Friday in her 61st year had resided until recently in East Haven and leaves a large circle of friends. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Harold S. Fowler and Raymond W. Fowler, and three daughters, Mrs. Gladys Leddy, Mrs. Vera M. Cornelius, all of New Haven, and Mrs. Sylvia N. Skinner of West Haven.

Harrisons Get Word From Son In Prison Camp

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Harrison of Main street received a postal card on Monday through the International Red Cross from their son Carleton who was lost in a mission over Germany in September, and is now in a Prisoner of War Camp.

He writes: "Dear Mom and Dad: I am in good health and feeling fine. Hope you have heard about me before this. You have no reason for worry. Believe me. Contact Red Cross to send mail or Parcel Post. Will write when possible. Loads of Love. Carleton."

Personalities

An Enjoyable Visit With "Grandma". Little Who Began Painting In Oils At Age Of 75.

Nobody minds visiting "Grandma". Little in the C. L. Weaver home on Bradley avenue. It isn't a chore. It's a privilege because you like the pleasure of her company. She doesn't overwhelm you with an "organ recital" of her difficulties as a patient who has been confined to her bed for two years. No sir. Not on your life will she trouble you with the "Little" troubles. But from her first leading question about "how are others?" to her last farewell, you wonder how she keeps so patient and so cheerful. You really forget that she is a shut-in because her conversation is so delightful.

Mrs. Isabella Little was born in Liverpool, England, January 14, 1861. Her father, Joseph Hood, was a dealer in fine art in Sloan street, just off Hyde Park in London. Her mother was Elizabeth Walker Hood. As a child Mrs. Little painted in water colors particularly loving to bring to life on the canvas, mountain scenes in North Wales where her father had a summer home. About eight years ago residents of East Haven had the opportunity to see an exhibition of about twenty of her oil paintings in the Haganman Memorial Library. One remarkable thing about this work was that it was all done after Mrs. Little had passed beyond the biblical span of three score years and ten. She was 75 at the time the work was begun. Yes that's the age when most of us have retired or have been retired.

Mrs. Little recalls seeing Queen Victoria and other members of the royal family when she lived in London. Vivid in her memory too is the experience of hearing the famous Adeline Patti sing there and of hearing the American evangelists, Moody and Sankey who were popular in Britain of that time. She also remembers as a child collecting money in school for the relief of victims in the great Chicago fire.

When she was 20, Mrs. Little came to America and settled in Willimantic. Four years later she married Charles Erwin Little, a former teacher and a shoe merchant, who shared her ideals of life. Stress was placed on their family life, on the value of books and of education and in taking part in the life of the community. Three children today bless her for this early training in their home. Mrs. H. W. Rankin of Wethersfield, Mrs. C. L. Weaver of East Haven, both of whom have had useful teaching careers, and Malcolm G. Little of the TVA in Paris, Tenn. It is clear that Mrs. Little takes great pride also in a granddaughter, Mrs. Edward G. James of Cromwell and two great grandchildren, Richard James of Cromwell and Greta Little of Asheville, N.C.

Not to be forgotten are the pictures of four nephews on her table dressed in the uniforms of the U. S. Army. Mrs. Little's daily prayers are for Cap. Douglas W. Rankin, a maintenance engineer with the Air Force in Puerto Rico; Capt. James W. Rankin of the 160th Infantry in the South Pacific; First Lieut. Malcolm G. Little Jr., with the engineering corps in Italy and First Lieut. Albert P. Little, a copilot on a B-29 who expects to see overseas service soon.

Since she has been ill, Mrs. Little is no longer able to do her re-

TOWN TOPICS

FROM OUR REPORTERS' NOTEBOOKS

...Wotta week!

Old Jupiter Pluvius busy. Snow and ice and sleet, Then more snow and ice and sleet.

We shovelled the sidewalks at nights and found them filled in again next morning.

Cheer-up! Supt. John Murphy at the Post Office tells us seed catalogues are beginning to arrive and that the zinnias, asters and morning glories, the tomatoes, rutabago and leek are bigger and brighter than ever on the colored covers.

And valentines, we note, are on display in our variety stores, so spring cannot be far away now.

Ground-hog day two weeks from tomorrow. Farmers up Farm River way still reckon that day as mid-rhyme, "Ground-hog Day, Old! your wood and half your hay."

Stormy nights plucked by both Old Stone and Christ church people for their annual supper-meetings.

Appreciate the kind words from J. D. Houston as to content of EAST HAVEN NEWS. Also all others who have given encouragement and advice.

March of Dimes going forward with generous participation by public. Mrs. Robert H. Gerrish and her capable committee performing excellent job. Gifts to Infantile Paralysis cause is money well spent.

The Ever Ready Group will meet Tuesday in the parish house at 2:30 P.M. Hostesses, Mrs. Lewis Borden and Mrs. Earl Clark.

A feature at the annual meeting of the Stone church Friday night (story elsewhere) was the presentation of a program on the Returning Service Men Records made by N.E.C. of the Congregational Committee on War Victims and War Services. The records were played by Harris Antey and included "The Opportunity and Responsibility of the Church with Returning Veterans," "Home Isn't Home Any More" and "Seven Years in Two."

Mr. Werther Bengler is convalescing at his home in Saltonstall Parkway following an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Leslie Burgess of Bartlett road announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian to A.S. Jack R. Hunter, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter of Wilkingsburg, Penn. Miss Burgess marked paintings. But her artistic touch lives in the beautiful hand work which she does. Deeply religious by nature, patient and optimistic, "Grandma" Little is a true inspiration to all who know her. "I brought my religious faith from across the sea", she says, "and it has stayed by me through many difficulties in life." She is a devoted member of the Old Stone church whose fortunes she follows eagerly. And so our tribute to "Grandma Little" a personality who is a personality!

marked paintings. But her artistic touch lives in the beautiful hand work which she does. Deeply religious by nature, patient and optimistic, "Grandma" Little is a true inspiration to all who know her. "I brought my religious faith from across the sea", she says, "and it has stayed by me through many difficulties in life." She is a devoted member of the Old Stone church whose fortunes she follows eagerly. And so our tribute to "Grandma Little" a personality who is a personality!

attended Linden Hall, Junior College, Lititz, Penn. A.S. Hunter attended Ohio University and is now studying at Yale under the Navy V12 program.

Thomas M. Frisco, Jr., who was selected for training in the Army program at Connecticut University, has been enjoying a furlough with his parents here.

Reorganization of the adult choir of the Old Stone church is a project of the new year and all interested are invited to the first choir rehearsal Friday at 7:30 in the church. At the recent meeting of the newly elected Music Committee Stanley Shamp was elected chairman and Mrs. William Hasse, secretary.

Chief Hugh J. Farrell of the Police Department has issued a warning to motorists to discontinue the practice of allowing children with sleds to hitch rides behind automobiles on the public highways.

Arthur Burwell, proprietor of Art's Deluxe Cleaners, in Main street, next to the Town Hall, announces that his establishment is temporarily closed. Announcement will be made shortly of resumption of business.

Mrs. Chester Knight of Frank street spent a few days this past week with her sister in Torrington, R. I.

Spaghetti supper enjoyed Wednesday night following regular meeting of Noyah's Council, Degree of Pochontas in Red Men's Hall.

American Legion Auxiliary meets Friday night in Harry R. Bartlett post rooms in Thompson avenue. Ladies are selling tickets for a nice cooker now on display in window of Holcombe Drug Co.

Progressive pinocle headliner tonight in Christ Church Hall. Large attendance expected. Frederick C. Dahl heads committee.

We have been following with keen interest the growth and development of "Flash", the Dalmatian mascot at Fire Headquarters, and were pleased to learn this week that she has achieved a weight of 34 pounds. "Flash" is getting to be quite a dog. ADDITIONAL TOWN TOPICS ON PAGE 2

REMEMBER WHEN?

JAN. 12 to JAN. 10, 1920 The Union Missionary Society met with Mrs. E. E. Cowles and Mrs. H. H. Bradley had charge of the program.

A baked lamb supper was served by the new Parish Air Society of Christ Episcopal church.

Little Donald Bacon was ill with the Measles.

Harold Clark was visiting his grandparents at the Congregational parsonage in High street.

Mrs. H. J. Farrell was serving as substitute teacher in Union school in the absence of Miss Blue.

Fight INFANTILE PARALYSIS

1945 JANUARY 1945

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THUR	FRI	SAT
1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30	31

KEEP AMERICA STRONG

JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES

Space Sponsored By

East Haven Packing Co.

Burr Street

Your Gifts To March Of Dimes Brings Miracles

Hark, Hark, Hark the Dimes are marching! The March of Dimes, America's great annual contribution to the fight against the crippling disease Infantile Paralysis, is underway. It began January 14 and will continue to the end of the month.

Town Topics

We are in receipt of a very attractive little calendar from S. R. Chidsey and W. S. Coker, which we are pleased to hang in the NEWS office. The picture is a delightful winter scene, "Trotting

F. J. BLAKEMAN

PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT
Systems - Statements - Income Tax
63 Pardee Place Phone 4-2756 East Haven
Member C.A.P.A.
ANNOUNCES THE OPENING OF AN OFFICE AT
First National Bank Building
42 CHURCH ST., NEW HAVEN, CONN.

Schmidt's Restaurant

Under management of Charlie Kieher formerly with Dorscht Lodge and Hotel Taft Special Every Saturday and Sunday
Turkey Dinner 85c
Hot Turkey Sandwich 50c
ALL KINDS OF SANDWICHES
105 Main Street East Haven

Busy With War Work?
Do your shopping here in comfort and provide your family with our delicious quality foods.
We have a complete line of rolls, breads, cakes, pies, cookies and other mouth-watering items for the table.
Wolfe's Quality Food Shop
291 Main Street East Haven

No Shortage of Whiskey Here
Dan Parilla's Economy Package Store
The Largest—Most Modern—Most Complete-Stocked Liquor Store Between New York and Boston
OPEN 8 A.M. - 8 P.M. - Friday, Saturday 8 A.M. - 9 P.M.
289 Main Street Phone 4-0064 East Haven

Schools and Salvage

This country has been notorious for the amount of waste dumped or thrown away after being only partially used. Some other countries could almost subsist on what we waste.
This picture has changed in the last two years and greater care is being exercised in the use of materials. Our public schools reach almost every family and because of this can act as a great force in spreading the idea of thrift.

A resident of the Foxon Park section of East Haven for the past 18 years, Mr. Albert was formerly in business in New Haven. He opened a place in Foxon in 1938 and in 1940 erected a larger establishment at the present location.

MR. BRINLEY'S COLUMN

In an unusually well played game, by both teams, still we have to admit the boys of the Old Stone Church lost by two points, to St. Luke's P.E. Church boys both sides.

George A. Sisson

INSURANCE
FIRE - BONDS
AUTOMOBILE - CASUALTY
11 Chidsey Ave., East Haven

Valentines!

A Complete Line
1 Cent to 1 Dollar
also Valentine Materials

The Gift Shop

4-1730
240 Main St. East Haven

RECONDITION YOUR HAIR FOR SPRING WITH A SERIES OF Breck Treatments

SIX FOR $7.50
MARCELLE'S BEAUTY SALON
Operated by Dell Tremblay
192 Main Street East Haven Tel. 4-3248

SALE 10% REDUCTION ON SWEATERS FLORA SHERMAN

Fred's Restaurant

Fred Tanc, Prop.
Specializing in ITALIAN AND AMERICAN DISHES
SPAGHETTI - RAVIOLI
Tel. 4-0247
274 Main St., East Haven

NEEDS HELP ON WAR WORK WANTED

MACHINE OPERATORS (Milling - Drilling and Grinding)
TOOLMAKERS - DIMENERS
TOOL GRINDERS
MILLWRIGHTS
PUNCH PRESS OPERATORS
LABORERS - FOUNDRY HELPERS
PIEEMEN
MILLWRIGHTS
ELECTRICIANS
POLISHERS
GIRLS TO ASSEMBLE NAVY PADLOCKS
APPLY
SARGENT & COMPANY
45 Water Street New Haven

FROM CALIFORNIA

Editor, EAST HAVEN NEWS:
Dear Sir:
Please find enclosed money order for 2 dollars for which kindly list my subscription to your weekly NEWS for one year. I resided in East Haven and Short Beach for many years, and having received a recent copy of your paper, decided I should like to renew old acquaintances through its columns. Hence my order.
Mrs. Eva G. Fager,
Santa Cruz, Calif.

POST OFFICE SCHEDULE

East Haven Branch
John Murphy, Superintendent
MAILS
Received 6:50 A.M.
Dispatched 7:10 A.M.
11:30 A.M.
1:30 P.M.
3:15 P.M.
6:30 P.M.
WINDOW SERVICE
Money Orders 8 A.M. to 5:45 P.M.
Registry 7:30 A.M. to 6:30 P.M.
Stamps, General Delivery and Parcel Post 7:30 A.M. to 7 P.M.
Saturday office closes 3 P.M.

PLUMBING
No Job too Large
No Job too Small
Peter A. Limoncelli
PLUMBING & HEATING CONTRACTOR
Phone 4-1387
199 Henningway Ave. East Haven

Ralph Amato's New Restaurant IS STILL OPEN
130 Casey Beach Avenue Momaugun SEA FOOD, STEAK, AND CHICKEN DINNERS
CHOICE LIQUORS
Tel. 4-0175

When your Radio Needs Attention Call Us for Prompt Reliable Service
EAST HAVEN RADIO CO.
E. G. CURRY Phone 4-3084

ELM CITY CLOTHES
Tailored to Your Measure and Ready Made Suits
TOPCOATS - OVERCOATS - PANTS
Cleaning - Pressing - Repairing
Bill Faugno of East Haven, Proprietor
Store Open 8 A.M. to 8 P.M.
449 State Street Phone 6-6655 New Haven

SARGENT NEEDS HELP ON WAR WORK WANTED
MACHINE OPERATORS (Milling - Drilling and Grinding)
TOOLMAKERS - DIMENERS
TOOL GRINDERS
MILLWRIGHTS
PUNCH PRESS OPERATORS
LABORERS - FOUNDRY HELPERS
PIEEMEN
MILLWRIGHTS
ELECTRICIANS
POLISHERS
GIRLS TO ASSEMBLE NAVY PADLOCKS
APPLY
SARGENT & COMPANY
45 Water Street New Haven

Gen. Knox Says

I am mighty glad to see that the town officials are going to crack down on folks who come here from out of town with trucks, automobiles and other kinds of vehicles loaded with ashes, cans, and all kinds of junk, liberally mixed up with garbage and trash paper, and then deposit their assortment of cast-offs on our town dumping place at the foot of Henningway avenue. We all know there's no need for our East Haven people to carry their rubbish there because we here in East Haven have had the forest and the forest thought to set up our own municipal trash collection service.

SUNDAY AT STONE CHURCH

"On Being Reconciled to Life" is the title of the sermon to be preached by the Rev. William C. West Sunday in the Old Stone Church at 11 A.M. This is the third in a series on "Your Personality and Your Religion." The recollections will be by Mr. and Mrs. William Babcock.

Protect Those Young Feet Now
Your child's feet need the right shoe for their child, at the Temple Shoe Shop. Built on combination lasts, narrow fitting heels and plenty of toe room for growing feet.
Sharkskin Tip Ox Leather Shoes
Goodyear Welt
1 1/2 to 3 - A to D ALL FITTINGS CHECKED BY X-RAY TEMPLE SHOE SHOP
149 Temple Street One Flight Up

COURTESY
Your Neighborhood Drugist is never too busy or too bothered to take time out for courtesy. Somehow Courtesy and Service come to be synonymous with the Neighborhood Pharmacy. At times it may take a little longer to serve you. The Neighborhood drugist, you know, prefers not to lower his standards or to compromise with care in countering prescriptions. He knows it's better to wait than worry.
HOLCOMBE DRUG CO.
Every user of "oil or coke should strive to keep within 87 1/2 percent of their normal requirements. Beyond that a government regulation says that dealers must deliver a substitute fuel, which is reclaimed coke or soft coal.

CONSERVE FUEL
Every user of "oil or coke should strive to keep within 87 1/2 percent of their normal requirements. Beyond that a government regulation says that dealers must deliver a substitute fuel, which is reclaimed coke or soft coal.
EAST HAVEN COAL CO.
COAL - KOPPERS COKE - FUEL OILS
287 Main St. Phone 4-2359 East Haven

Come Here for a Satisfying Meal
WE'RE FAMOUS FOR FOOD well served and prepared. Foods moderately priced but of the best quality compose our menus. There is something to please the whole family.
Open 'til Midnight
East Haven Diner
Main St. at Kirkham Avenue East Haven

PERCE STRINGS & GEORGE WHELAN
WHAT'S THE BEST FISH BEFORE THE SQUIP?
JUST BETWEEN US THE FIRST ONE GETS THE WONGER.
DON'T WANT AND BE DECEIVED DEALING WITH WHELAN'S BRADLEY & MAIN YOU'LL BE PLEASED WITH OUR SERVICE.
WHELAN'S
BRADLEY & MAIN PHONE 4-0800 EAST HAVEN

WORLD WAR II HEROES

Christ Church Holds Annual Parish Meeting

Dr. Bishop and Mr. Olson Elected As Wardens—Many Attend Supper
Despite the inclement weather a large attendance was noted at the annual parish supper and meeting of Christ Episcopal Church Tuesday night. Reports for the year past showed considerable progress. The officers chosen for the coming year are as follows:

Senior Warden, Dr. A. B. Bishop; Junior Warden, Martin Olson; Clerk of the Parish, Edwin M. Morse; Treasurer, Donald L. Hoare; Envelope Treasurer, Mrs. Donald L. Hoare; Vestrymen for 3 years: Clifford L. Weaver, Arthur W. Endris, Robert D. Schroeder, Sr., LeRoy Bates; Vestrymen for 2 years: A. W. Mauney, Vestryman for 1 year: A. M. Doonick, Samuel Boyer; Delegate to Diocesan Convention, Dr. A. B. Bishop; Martin Olson, alternate; C. L. Weaver, A. W. Endris; Delegates to Archdiocesan Convention, Mrs. E. D. Rose, Mrs. S. Page; Auditor, Arthur W. Endris.

What's Doing At Town Hall
First Selectman James J. Sullivan is in receipt of a copy of a letter sent by Attorney General Patrick to Governor Baldwin defining the steps necessary in the election of a new judge of probate for the New Haven District of which East Haven is a part. The attorney general ruled that the vacancy caused by the death of Judge John L. Gilson exists as of January 3 when the term to which the late Judge Gilson was elected was to begin. It is his opinion that it will be necessary for the political parties to name new delegates to their respective probate conventions to nominate a successor, and that in view of the absentee ballot law the governor should set the date of the special election not less than four months from the date of the writ for a special election. This means that the special election will probably not be held until late spring or early summer.

E. A. Daniels, chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals, has called a public hearing for January 24 at 8 P.M. to act upon (1) the application of John C. Cline of 509 Laurel street to erect a six-car garage for storage of trucks on his property, and (2) the application of Mrs. Fannie Meekin of 11 Francis street to make interior alterations to her dwelling with the view of converting it into a two-family residence.

Painting Decorating
Frederick C. Dahl
PAINTING CONTRACTOR
Phone 4-0988
50 High St. East Haven

East Haven Cleaners
12 Years On Main Street
Tailoring - Repairing
Dyeing
Shoe Repairing
Phone 4-1109
2300 Main St. East Haven

Burn Mortgages At Annual Meet Of Stone Church

A royal covered dish supper started the annual meeting of the Old Stone church Friday evening. The fellowship was good even though the weather kept some members away. The best financial report in the history of the church was given and James Ogilvie, R.E. Cowles and Rev. William West burned two mortgage notes which were wiped out last year through splendid cooperation of the church.

The Board of Tax Review is holding weekly sessions during January with remaining meetings scheduled for January 20 and 27. An evening session will be provided on the latter date. These hearings are for taxpayers who are dissatisfied with the assessments levied against their property by the Board of Assessors. Mr. C. Grover of the Board of Tax Review says that the number of appeals run about the same as usual this year.

AMICO ACES HONOR FOR GEORGE SISSON
George A. Sisson was notified this week by James S. Kemper, president of the American Motorists Insurance Company, that his name has been elected to membership in the Amico Aces, the honorary organization composed of leading representatives of the

SHOP AT Wel-Worth 5 & 10
For Your Winter Necessaries
Radiators Covers
Snow Shovels
Weather Stripping
LARGE ASSORTMENT OF VALENTINES
Bernard Sachs, Prop.
281 MAIN ST., EAST HAVEN

Central Cleaners
CLEANING - REPAIRING ALTERING
2 - 3 DAY SERVICE
PRESSING WHILE YOU WAIT
332 Main St. East Haven

SUNDAY AT CHRIST CHURCH
8 A.M. Holy Communion
9:30 Church School
11 Morning prayer and sermon by Rev. Alfred Clark.
7 P.M. Fireside Fellowship in Rectory.
Momaugun Branch
9:30 A.M. Morning prayer and sermon by Rev. T. Barnett.
10:45 Church School.
Wednesday at 2:30 P.M. Study meeting by Women's Auxiliary in Church Hall.
Friday at 9:30 A.M. Service of Intercession.

ANNOUNCING THE EAST HAVEN MEMORIAL FUNERAL HOME
(Formerly Longobardi & Son)
425 MAIN STREET
Salvatore Longobardi Tel. 4-1708

AMERICAN RED CROSS

CENTER DISTRICT
East Haven Town Hall
Surgical Dressings
Mon. 1:30-4:40, 7:30-9:30
Sewing
Wed. 10:00-4:00 Convalescence luncheon
POXON Community Center
Wed. 10:00-4:44
Bradford Manor Firehouse
Surgical Dressings Mon. 1:30-5:40
Sewing Wed. 10:00-4:00
Chairman of Home Service
Mrs. Eric Dohna, 63 High St. 4-1409
Chairman of Nutrition
Mrs. H. S. Johnson, 48 Taylor Ave. 4-0858
Chairman of Home Nursing
Mrs. Geo. Sullivan, 13 Chidsey Ave. 4-0900
Chairman of Cantonee
Mrs. John F. Maron, 17 Bartlett Rd. 4-2347
Chairman of Branch
Mrs. Alvin Sanford, 32 Taylor Ave. 4-0499
Chairman of Disaster Preparedness
Joseph F. Adams, 28 Tuttle Pl. 4-1200

Hear ye! Hear ye!
Under this heading a weekly market place is afforded all who have wants of one kind or another. The cost is 10 cents a line, three lines 35 cents. Minimum charge 25 cents. Advertisements must be received before 9 P.M. Wednesday. Phone 4-2207.
FOR RENT—Small hall in East Haven for wedding parties and societies. Call 4-2922.
WANTED 3 or 4 rooms near center. Improvements, Reasonable rent. Phone 7-0803.

The Old Reliable C. A. J. Poirot & Sons
Plumbing, Heating and Tinning
400 Bradley St., East Haven 4-1537

Raymond Fowler
Painting - Paper Hanging Decorating
WE ARE AVAILABLE NOW.
OUR PRICES ARE REASONABLE.
46 Furber Avenue New Haven

Winter Needs Around The House
SNOW SHOVELS
AXES
SANDVICK SWEDISH STEEL SAWS
GALVANIZED PAILS
East Haven 5 & 10 Cent Store
203 Main St. (Next to Holcombe's) East Haven

Keep your Car Happy
Have it Serviced here and it will sing through the ice and snow.
Open until 9 p.m.
For your convenience
Bill's Sunoco Service Station
388 Main St., cor. Gerrish Ave. East Haven

NOW OPEN
The Beautiful FOXON TOWNE HOUSE
ROUTE 80 FOXON PARK, EAST HAVEN
Angie's Place—He's Still Here!
DANCING
Every Thursday, Friday, Saturday
Ben Spivak and His Band
Good Food, Wines, Liquors
BUS SERVICE TO DOOR... PHONE 7-5124

The Branford Review (Established 1928)
and
East Haven News
Published Every Thursday

MEYER LESHINE
Publisher
ALICE T. PETERSON
Editor, Branford Review
PAUL H. STEVENS
Editor, East Haven News
Telephone Branford 400
East Haven 4-2807

Member of
New England Press Association

SUBSCRIPTION RATE
$2.00 a year, Payable in Advance Advance Rates on Application

THE BRANFORD REVIEW, Inc.
37 Rose St., Branford
EAST HAVEN NEWS
112 Stantonhill Pkwy., East Haven

Entered as second class matter
October 18, 1928, at the Post Office at Branford, Conn., under Act of March 3, 1879.

Thursday, January 18, 1945

THE ANSWER MAN

Note that the Answer Man on WOI says "No, Yale University has not always been in New Haven
it was founded at Saybrook in 1701 and moved to New Haven in 1717."

Why don't we do something about putting Branford on the map?

The Answer Man is correct, but if we continually publicized Branford's history and virtues he might have added:

"In the year 1700 eleven ministers met in Branford at the house of Rev. Samuel Russell and agreed to give a part of their books toward the library of a college. The first official classes began in Chilton with the official location 'Saybrook'."

We cannot claim that Yale had its first existence here, as no classes were ever held in Branford.

Eight years ago spring approaches
we bemoan the fact that in our town, one of New England's best does nothing to sell itself to the rest of the country.

DID PRETTY WELL

Branford has fallen down in its attempt to meet the quota set for it in the Connecticut War Fund drive for the agencies of the National War Fund.

It is not "ostentatious" for
the town to fall short of its quotas,
but on the other hand it is probably the only town in the state which has not met its quota of $8000 was plus to high. Local chairmen cautioned those of Ogden
"Bigelow's" committee that figures were "approaching Red Cross proportions."

In any event something went wrong. Practically the entire group of solicitors called on the same people approached for other drives. Methinks in their eagerness to cash in on the phrase
"war fund" it became badly confused with the sixth war fund loan.

Branford has nothing of which
to be ashamed when asked to do her part.

HIGHWAY SAFETY

Success goes with the Indian Neck Parents' Teachers' Association
in its efforts to secure protection for school children against traffic dangers.

They have announced an intention of recommending that protection be stabilized for all schools. The matter will be taken up at the budget meeting of the Board of Finance in the fall.

Parents have long been concerned about this matter and
from time to time have tried
various methods. Teachers have stressed highway safety year after year.

It is agreed that the child is in
great danger on our curbside
sidewalk less patrol-less
crossings.

A police officer in front of the school building is not the answer

members of the faculty use every precaution at that point. It is the thoughtless play on the way home wherein lies danger.

Not many years ago parents at another school made demands
for a time a motorcycle officer patrolled either side of the school for nearly a mile.

After the officers first trip the youngsters became familiar with the sound of his approaching machine and became wistful model pedestrians until his back was turned.

There is an answer somewhere.

THE STRENGTH OF THE LEGION

The new 79th Congress was less than twenty-four hours old before there was ample evidence of the increasing strength and prestige of The American Legion.

In other words, statements emanating from Legion heads to the effect that the two war veterans organization intends to play a more vigorous role in public affairs are already bearing fruit.

This is partly attributable to the fact that roughly one-third of the membership of the House and Senate are Legionnaires. They have been able to make a single political party and the Legion knows no political allegiance or ties. It is also attributable to the sound and constructive planning of Legion programs. To put it another way, in prestige and planning,
the Legion is ready for both the demands of war and the eventualities of peace.

Ordinarily the damage is done
in the home. And here's how it usually happens, so far as the child is concerned. The family is gathered about the supper table,
and father or mother makes an uneasy or cruel charge against some-
one they have encountered during
the day, or they repeat as a fact
something they read in a pre-
judicial journal or pamphlet concerning a particular race or religion,
or the alleged act of a representative of organized labor.

The bridle clings with an unfair
characterization of the person discussed and ends with the remark:
"That's just like a _____," whatever the race, or the religion, or
the position of the person may be.
And thereby a whole race, or form
of religion, or movement is damned
in the mind of the child.

It may seem like an unimportant
matter to the parent, but the child
seated next to father or mother
listens in wonder and amazement,
and having absolute confidence in
his parent, he believes everything
that was said to be true.

Thus the seed of hatred is planted. It grows in the child's mind and becomes a festering,
corrosive sore which affects all his
thinking, distorting all his judge-
ments, and making him a ready
victim of the propaganda of the bigot.

Need it be said that parents
should not encourage—especially
in their own homes—ideas which
are unnatural in children, and which
are one of the greatest blights on mankind today?

In these times when hatred is so
rampant, causing untold suffering
to the individuals and to nations,
the parents of American children
can render no greater service in
building up the spirit of brotherhood and democracy throughout
the world than by showing their

LET US NOT CAUSE SCARS OF HATRED

By Dr. Charles Steible

Where does the spirit of class hatred have its source? Most of us imagine that it is due altogether
to the propaganda of misguided leaders. The fact is, such leaders usually merely take advantage of prejudice which already exists.
They simply build upon it and increase it. Therefore we need to go back to original sources.

Ordinarily the damage is done
in the home. And here's how it
usually happens, so far as the
child is concerned. The family is
gathered about the supper table,
and father or mother makes an un-
easy or cruel charge against some-
one they have encountered during
the day, or they repeat as a fact
something they read in a pre-
judicial journal or pamphlet concerning a particular race or religion,
or the alleged act of a representative of organized labor.

The bridle clings with an unfair
characterization of the person discussed and ends with the remark:
"That's just like a _____," what-
ever the race, or the religion, or
the position of the person may be.
And thereby a whole race, or form
of religion, or movement is damned
in the mind of the child.

It may seem like an unimportant
matter to the parent, but the child
seated next to father or mother
listens in wonder and amazement,
and having absolute confidence in
his parent, he believes everything
that was said to be true.

Thus the seed of hatred is
planted. It grows in the child's mind and becomes a festering,
corrosive sore which affects all his
thinking, distorting all his judge-
ments, and making him a ready
victim of the propaganda of the
bigot.

Need it be said that parents
should not encourage—especially
in their own homes—ideas which
are unnatural in children, and which
are one of the greatest blights on
mankind today?

In these times when hatred is so
rampant, causing untold suffering
to the individuals and to nations,
the parents of American children
can render no greater service in
building up the spirit of brother-
hood and democracy throughout
the world than by showing their

FROM OUR READERS

Of course you know that none of the residents of Washington, D. C. are allowed to vote. I am one of the victims of "Voteless Washington." I was born in one of our largest cities in point of population and I have no voice, vote or official choice by its residents. Congress is the Common Council, and ruler of our destiny. You people in the States elect these Senators and Representatives, and they have enforced our rule over us for more than 70 years.
Therefore, only the people in the States can vote, can make Democracy live, and send the people in their National Capital. So, I am asking for your opinions. Washington is the "blackened out" territory of the other former Territories have all been admitted as States.

I suggest that the regular participate that has been followed by put in motion.

Please write me promptly and I will let Congress know what the people back home think about the mistake inflicted upon the District
and its one million people. J. E.
Jones, Transportation, Building,
Washington, D. C.

School Board
Continued from page one

The School Bus which arrives at the school at about 8:30 A.M., thereby allowing just enough time
for pupils to remove wraps, take their seats and begin their work.

You will note that the lunch
hour has been cut to fifty minutes
to reduce the time for the school to dismiss at ten minutes of three in order that all pupils who do not have to attend the after school
Special Help and Make-up Class
may be ready to take the three o'clock bus home, at their own expense, if their parents desire them to do so.

The Board asks the wholehearted
cooperation of all parents in following the above outlined
schedule of sessions for the Indian Neck School.

AMERICA!

HERES A SNAP OF GEORGE
IN GUADALCANAL
BOYS

SEE MY
DA-SUNNY
ITALY

AMERICA!

Success goes with the Indian Neck Parents' Teachers' Association
in its efforts to secure protection for school children against
traffic dangers.

They have announced an intention of recommending that protection be stabilized for all
schools. The matter will be taken
up at the budget meeting of the Board of Finance in the fall.

Parents have long been concerned about this matter and
from time to time have tried
various methods. Teachers have
stressed highway safety year after
year.

It is agreed that the child is in
great danger on our curbside
sidewalk less patrol-less
crossings.

A police officer in front of the

Lanphier's Cove
By WINNIE RINKER

Pvt. Herbert Saunders has returned to a hospital in Atlantic City after a visit here with his family.

DINGWELL-GREENWALL
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anders Green-wall announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Catherine Esther
to Mr. William Robert Dingwell, U. S. Merchant Marine, son of Mr.
Earle Dingwell of Hamden.

The ceremony will be performed
Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Taber
Lutheran Church by the Rev. Os-lund of Guilford.

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. Gertrude B. Korth who has been married her home in Stony Creek with her aunt, Mrs. William Hawkes has purchased a home in Madison.

Mrs. Eleanor Tower of New Jersey was a recent week end guest of her father, Jerome F. Donovan, Stony Creek.

Rudolph Kneuer has been appointed to several important committees of the Guilford Branch.

Miss Gloria Crisafi, 622 Main St., East Haven recently served as publicity chairman and Miss Lucy Tryko, 89 Paul Street, served as hostess chairman at the United Nations Conference held at the New Haven State Teachers College
on Friday, January 12. Miss Betty Ryan, 131 Kimberley Avenue participated in the program.

Cooperation of all parents in following the above outlined
schedule of sessions for the Indian Neck School.

USED FAT MAGIC

USED FAT
CONVERTED INTO GLYCERINE

GOES INTO MILITARY
MEDICINES

We are pleased to announce that
under new arrangements we are able to obtain delivery by mail to NEWS subscribers in the Fair Haven, Greenwich, Corrie, and Morris
Cove sections on Friday or Saturday. If THE NEWS falls to reach
you on time please notify us.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 P.M. for Mrs. Lottie Terrible of 88 Quinlan place at Walker's Funeral Parlors in New Haven with Dr. John L. Gregory
officiating.

A beef-pie supper will be served
by St. Andrew's Sunshine Assembly
at 6:30 tonight in the chapel.

The Well Child Conference of the city in a discussion on our Russian allies. The theme of the conference was "Understanding Our Allies As People."

FAIRMOUNT

We are pleased to announce that
under new arrangements we are
able to obtain delivery by mail to
NEWS subscribers in the Fair Hav-
en, Greenwich, Corrie, and Morris
Cove sections on Friday or Saturday. If THE NEWS falls to reach
you on time please notify us.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 P.M. for Mrs. Lottie Terrible of 88 Quinlan place at Walker's Funeral Parlors in New Haven with Dr. John L. Gregory
officiating.

A beef-pie supper will be served
by St. Andrew's Sunshine Assembly
at 6:30 tonight in the chapel.

The Well Child Conference of the
city in a discussion on our Russian allies. The theme of the conference was "Understanding Our Allies As People."

DANCING FRIDAY and SATURDAY NIGHTS

at
THE 4-PILLARS
(EAST HAVEN'S NEWEST PLEASURE SPOT)

Featuring EARL STRONG and His Smart Rythm Band

Sunday Dinners
For the Family

Thrilling Entertainers
Ray Burns, Singer
Lillian Gibbons, Vocalist
Hope Johnson and Her Medians Accordion

Banquets And Parties A Specialty

Open Every Day - Courteous Service - Pleasant Surroundings - Quality Liquors

ON THE CUT-OFF PHONE 4-0169 EAST HAVEN

FOR FUN BOWL HERE!

East Haven
Community Bowling Alleys
204 MAIN STREET
For Reservations Call
4-0215 - 4-1441

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass extermination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his country is free again.

Wonderful Xmas Afforded Boys
In New Guinea

Some Servicemen Saw Girls In Civilian Clothes For First Time
In Two Or Three Years.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Ray McLean of
New Guinea, in collaboration with Special Services, planned a party for the whole Base. It was a two-day affair
and included church services,
entertaining, and many other things.
The party was a great success and
the boys were very happy.

What a Christmas! The Red Cross, in collaboration with Special Services, planned a party for the
whole Base. It was a two-day affair
and included church services,
entertaining, and many other things.
The party was a great success and
the boys were very happy.

After the festivities on Christmas Eve we put a portable organ
on a truck and went out singing Christmas carols "til 2:00 A.M. We went down to the docks where a ship was loading troops to go north.
We knew a lot of the boys and two of them were members of our choir.
They jumped on the ship and got on the truck and sang with us. It was quite a sight to see all the men
singing in unison and our choir
with all of us singing a back ground of tropical beauty—bright moonlight—stars—palm trees, etc.
It was a beautiful sight to see all of our boys singing in unison and our choir.

Christmas night after the festivities were over one of the organists, who was a member of our choir, was very busy. He was over to our mess hall and played for us a couple of hours.

Really it was a wonderful Christmas, and certainly a different one from the ones we had at home.
Don't know whether or not I told you about the four of us being taken to sing with our choir.
Didn't know you had a prima donna in the family did you? Confidential to carry but we know
it and I am sure you know it too.
They like us.

"This is the Army" was a wonderful show we met the cast after it, which was lots of fun. Think I told you about meeting Larry Ross and Irving Berlin. Life here is certainly full of surprises.

Love to all,
"Bobbie"

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doctor and attendants helped him to escape. He
rejoined Underground work—propaganda,
publishing newspapers, helping refugees to
escape, training young people, bringing
punishment on collaborators—all the
grueling, detailed, hazardous jobs involved in
the secret war against Hitler.

Much of what he said had to be kept
confidential at that time. Now it is possible
for him to tell the full story, which he
does in his book, "Story of a Secret State",
a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for January.

There are at least two chapters in "Story of a Secret State" that,
once read, it will be difficult to forget, much as we would like to
forget them.

Before he left Poland, Karski was taken
on two of the most incredible personally
conducted tours that ever man befell. By
a way of a secret passage he visited the War-
saw ghetto, saw death and disease and
starvation on the faces of the doomed popu-
lace who walked there.

Disguised as an Estonian guard, he also
spent a day in a Jewish death camp, where
he saw for himself the way the Nazis are conducting their mass ex-
termination of innocent men, women and children.

"Story of a Secret State" is told simply, factually, with no attempt
at literary flourishes or embellishments—and for that reason is all the more effective. Jan Karski is in America now. His greatest desire is to get back to Poland, to continue the job that must be done before his
country is free again.

READING & WRITING
By Edwin Scauer and Robin M'Korm

Jan Karski is a young Polish lieutenant (only thirty years old)
who spent three years with Poland's Underground. Before the German invasion forces reached Paris, he served as a courier between the Underground and France. The Gestapo eventually caught and tortured him, and one night
while everything seemed hopeless he slashed his wrists with a razor blade.

He regained consciousness in a prison
hospital, and the sympathetic Slovakian doc

HOUSEWIFE'S MEAT COOKERY GUIDE

Table with columns: COOKING METHODS, BEEF CUTS, VEAL CUTS, PORK CUTS, LAMB CUTS, VARIETY MEATS. Rows include Roasting, Broiling and Panbroiling, Frying, Braising, and Stewing.

Red Cross Notes

Game for surgical dressings is expected daily. The quota for New Haven Chapter is 650,000 dressings, size 4x8, and the request is that they be made and delivered twice a month.

It is well to repeat many times the statement made by Mrs. Thorvald F. Hammer, acting chairman of the Red Cross Home Service.

NORTH BRANFORD

Services in the local churches on Sunday will be: Mass at 9:25 o'clock at St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Rev. John J. McCarthy, pastor, and music by the choir.

Morning worship will be celebrated at 9:30 o'clock at Zion Episcopal Church, Rev. Francis J. Smith, Rector, Mrs. Paul R. Hawkins, organist.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Why not have your typewriter and adding machine equipment placed in first class condition? Our fully equipped service department will do this work promptly and efficiently and furnish, without charge, loan machines.

FOR SALE—Barrels, kegs, gallon glass jars, glass jars, Brunswick Bagns, crates, baskets, etc. Howard Johnson, Branford Hills.

SHORT BEACH

ST. ELIZABETH R. C. CHURCH: Pastor, Rev. William O'Brien; Curates, Rev. Joseph Buckley, Rev. William Myers. Sunday Mass at 10 o'clock.

Joseph Grubb was inducted into military service in Albany, N. Y. on January 15.

Pine Orchard

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fusco of New Haven, who are summer residents here, have been notified by a Florida radio operator that their son, Lt. Edmund Fusco, a navigator on a four-engine bomber based in Italy, is a prisoner of war in Germany.

At a recent meeting of the Short Beach Sunning Society, Mrs. Walter Haller was elected president; Mrs. J. Kyle, secretary and Mrs. T. C. Bracken, treasurer.

Want Motorists To Make Early Registrations

About 450,000 motor vehicle registrations will be renewed by the State Department of Motor Vehicles during the next two months, according to Commissioner John T. McCarthy, who bases his estimate on the department's experience of the past quarter century.

Miss Maude Haight is spending several weeks visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

BONDS OVER AMERICA

Founded in 1876, Harvard University is the oldest college in the U. S. It has become one of the most famous universities of the world. It is in Cambridge, Mass., across the Charles River from Boston.

Where the Nazi hordes have struck, university faculties have fled to fight with the guerrillas or been pillaged at home, books have been burned, laboratories looted.

Chamberlain's

Here is something new, something clever, gay, and colorful—Leatherette head boards with box spring on legs and mattress—many styles and in both single and double sizes—$114.00 Complete

Preparation of meat for the table is one of the oldest of the household arts. Methods of meat cookery have been handed down from one generation to another.

THIS BUSINESS OF Living BY EUSAN THAYER. The husband of an old friend of mine was passing through town this week and came to dinner.

Meat cookery studies have revealed that no matter what method is used, best results are obtained with a low temperature.

World, at least an additional 500 assistant field directors must do the Red Cross uniform immediately.

The following is a message to fellow workers written by Mr. William B. Gumbert, Chairman of the New Haven Chapter.

Officers of Totoket Grange were called together for a conference at the home of Worthy Master, Burton S. Colter on Tuesday evening.

Schools opened as usual on Tuesday morning despite the bad condition of roads. State highway trucks kept the main arteries through town plowed and sanded.

Let your Portrait Be Your Valentine

A Greeting to Those You Love. Sittings in The Studio Or At Your Home. Medley Studio, 200 S. Bldg., Tel. 867-4.

HULL'S MORE BEER. KING-SIZE BOTTLES. THE HULL BREWING CO. NEW HAVEN, CONN.

Complete Home Furnishers

Furniture, Bedding, Ranges, Draperies, Rugs, Radios, Electrical Appliances. BULLARD'S, Elm Street, New Haven, Corner Orange.

LOOK HOW POPULAR HELEN IS. SHE USED TO BE SUCH A WALL-FLOWER BEFORE SHE JOINED THE WAVES.

Edward Kimball Peck who died January 10 at his home, 77 Helen Street, Hamden, was the father of Edward Kimball Peck, Jr., Clark Avenue. Funeral services were conducted Friday by the Rev. J. George Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derwin of New York visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Patterson over the week end. Only a few days previous Mr. and Mrs. Derwin learned that their son, Mr. Joseph Derwin, Jr., had been killed in action.

RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

"This Jan. 7 broadcast of 'The Life of Riley' marks the start of the Blue chain show's second year.

Paula Winslow, shown here, plays the wife of Star William Bendis in the popular Sunday comedy series.

"Mr. and Mrs. North" will solve bigger and better mysteries in 1945, the Tuesday NBC crime-and-comedy series having just been renewed for 12 more weeks.

Rationing News

MEATS AND FATS: Red Stamps, Q-5 through X-5, in Book Four, now good for 10 points each.

PROCESSED FOODS: Blue Stamps X-5 through Z-5 and A-2 through G-2, in Book Four now good for 10 points each.

FUEL OIL: Period Four and Period Five coupons of 1944-44 issue and Period One and Period Two coupons of 1944-45 issue valid to August 31.

GASOLINE: A14 coupons good for 4 gallons each, through March 21. C5, C6 and C6 coupons good for five gallons each until further notice.

SHOES: Airplane Stamps Numbers 1, 2, and 3 in War Book Three good for one pair of shoes each indefinitely.

Community House Notes

The J. Johnson Yanks sporting a record of 12 wins and two losses defeated the Branford Big Five 47-28, last Friday evening at the Community House.

Tom Mercurio and Jerry Lembo star forwards for the Yanks tallied 16 and 15 points respectively in the Red Santacore, stellar guard held the high scoring Stan Lubecki to one hoop.

In a grudge battle, the Branford Eastsides defeated the Fourth Ward 33-20 at the Community House for a return game with the Big Five. The game will be played at the Community House at 7:45 P.M.

Room 205 defeated Room 202 in an eight grade league game 33-17. Dick Dehan and Bob Fish no were the big point getters for the casidies with 16 and 12 points each. Richard Yanish and Dovey Valnic were top scorers for the Fourth Ward.

Room 110 remained undefeated in the seventh grade league by defeating Room 210 by a score of 60-18. Barri, Santos, and Casey tallied 16, 15 and 14 points respectively. Dick Dehan and Bob Fish no were the big point getters for the casidies with 16 and 12 points each.

People, Spots In The News

OUT OF THE BLACKS—Navy nurses are happy with new regulations eliminating the use of black hose. Sailing as they compare the new and the old (left) to right) Lieutenants (left) Arlene Miller, Fairfield, Conn., Margaret Anderson, Westport, N. Y., Evelyn Gray, St. Steeple, N. Y., and Mary Giesco, Chevy Chase, Md.

VEGETABLE KING—Donald F. Frazier, 121 Main St., has received $500 scholarship check from Paul H. French, marketing director of A. & P. produce-department.

CREDIT JUMBO WITH AN ASSIST—This two-ton refrigerator was made into a credit jumper by the help of 'Koponovitch', a 35 year old elephant, Capt. Stanley Hall (left) and a group of G.I.s.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derwin of New York visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Patterson over the week end. Only a few days previous Mr. and Mrs. Derwin learned that their son, Mr. Joseph Derwin, Jr., had been killed in action.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derwin of New York visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Patterson over the week end. Only a few days previous Mr. and Mrs. Derwin learned that their son, Mr. Joseph Derwin, Jr., had been killed in action.

WHEN IN NEED OF WALLPAPER OR PAINT

visit UNITED WALL PAPER CO., 93 Crown St., New Haven. "We Save You Money"

PRUSSICK'S SERVICE STATION, TEXACO GAS AND OIL. Havoline Oil in Sealed Cans. A different Grease for every purpose.

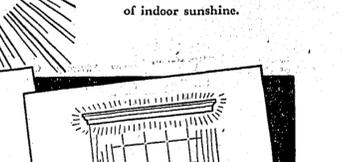

Capitol Theatre, 281 MAIN ST., EAST HAVEN. MRS. PARKINGTON, Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon.

The Branford Tile and Marble Co., GENERAL CONTRACTOR MASON AND PLASTER WORK. E. BRECCIAROLI, Phone 1115, 10 Fry St., Branford, Conn.

Don't Neglect Slipping FALSE TEETH. The false teeth drop, slip or wobble when you eat, and your mouth isn't happy and embarrassed by such happenings.

ALMOST EVERY DAY someone asks us, "What kind of lighting are we going to have after the war?"

Will it be new and different? The prospect is really exciting, and the time is not far distant when all of us can live in a new world of indoor sunshine.

Here's a clever lighting idea—a fluorescent lighted window cornice that will give you the effect of a sunlit window at night.

Another clever use of light. This young lady is practicing her music lesson with the soft, cool, abundant light of a concealed fluorescent lamp.

CONNECTICUT LIGHT & POWER CO.

Branford's News — Review

Branford's Lovely Ladies To Assist Dame Fashion In Mid-Winter Showing

J. Johnson & Sons, Inc., Clothiers of New Haven Will Deck Town's Belles In Latest Creations For Hammer Recreational Playground Fund Benefit.

Flood lights, soft music and glamorous ladies in finest fashions will be presented in the Community House on the evening of February 23 when Mrs. Michael Carpinella through arrangements with J. Johnson and Sons, stages a fashion show under the auspices of Hammer Field Playground Fund Committee.

Fifty or more models have been gleaned from all sections of town and the J. Johnson and Sons are selecting from their stock finest sportswear, suits, coats, house, street and party dresses.

Accompanying the entrance of each model Mrs. Robert Kusterer will comment on, and describe the fabric and design of each garment. Special lighting and orchestration will accompany the display.

Dancing after the showing will be included in the price of admission.

Among the models are:

Mesdames Robert Kusterer, Barbara Hubbard, Clarence Lake, Thomas Murphy, Emil Smithfield, Raymond Pinkham, D. D. Doolittle, Louise Holabird, C. B. Jackson, Raul Compton, Jr., Amos Barnes, Ray Hemming, Ivan Fuqua, Howard Gebel, Harry A. Paine, A. L. Patterson, Jack Salvin, Lester G. Hill, Evelyn Gladdys, Agnes Wood, Shirley Coates, Leon Waslewski, Travers A. Cowles, Frederick Gale, Irving Adams, Roy Enquist, Samuel G. Bentley, Mae Lindberg, Emily Nygard, A. O. Boutellier.

Mesdames John Batrow, Doris Engstrom, Frank Proto, Richard Green.

Misses Lillian Borzillo, Priscilla Taylor, Marion Klockars, Irene Schoening, Helen Herriman.

Misses Norma Petre, Callista Clancy, Jeanette Harrison, Beverly Rice, Jeanette Mill, Claire Chapin Ballard Lang, Doris Skroza, Nancy Shepard, Betty Thompson, June Cooke, Jean Waslewski, Isabelle Zdanovic, Alice Daley, Gertrude Daley, Jean Ericson, Jean Maurer, Polly Dunbar, Mary Bello Nancy Jacobs, Nancy Bradley, Evelyn Watrous, Tessie Swirski, Jean Harrison, Ruth Harrison.

BUS STOP CHANGE NOW EFFECTIVE

Acting on the request of Associated Business and with the approval of the local police authorities the Connecticut Co. has received necessary permission from state departments to reroute.

The change effects only the bus arriving at the Green from New Haven on the half hour. It will now enter the Green opposite Bradley Brothers store turning into Montowese Street and making stops on the north side of Main Street to conform with other bus scheduled stops.

Mrs. Dorothy Fraze of Short Beach has been notified that her son, Donald Sherwood Shubert was killed at Leyte on December 6.

Shubert, a graduate of Branford High School entered service October 7, 1942, and received training at Fort Ord in San Francisco. He went from there to Alaska, Marshall Islands, Quinsline, Oahu, and the Philippines. He participated in two major campaigns.

Mrs. Theresa Carden, high school teacher has tendered her resignation as of February 1. Mrs. Georgina Groves of East Haven replaces her.

Mrs. Irving Cooke will be hostess January 23 at the next meeting of Aristonians. She will be assisted by Mrs. Donald Thompson, Mrs. Homer Tefft and Mrs. Matthew Madden.

Miss Pearl Terwilliger has been made assistant business manager of the Larsonian, Larson Junior College year book.

Trinity Parish Lists Officers

At the annual meeting of Trinity Parish, Friday night, the following officers were elected: Senior warden, Walter H. Palmer; junior warden, Frank S. Bradley; vestrymen, Anson T. Babcock, Frank V. Bigelow, John J. V. Cunningham, Wallace H. Foote, C. Henry Holsenbeck, Archer E. Knowlton, R. Edwin Maddern, Irwin W. Morton, Lewis H. Mory, J. Wesson Phelps, Oswin H. Robinson, and Dr. Wilson E. Thompson; treasurer, Walter H. Palmer; clerk, R. Edwin Maddern; delegates to diocesan convention, Walter H. Palmer, Frank S. Bradley; alternates, Anson Babcock, R. Edwin Maddern; delegates to archdeaconry, Irwin W. Morton, Dr. Wilson E. Thompson; alternates, J. Wesson Phelps, C. Henry Holsenbeck; auditors, John J. V. Cunningham and Anson T. Babcock.

Slogan Contest About To Close

At the next meeting of Associated Business to be held at the Chowder House, Indian Neck, on February 1, an award of a $25 War Bond will be made for the best slogan for Branford. Entries are still open and may be submitted until the closing date on January 25 by any resident of Branford, including servicemen and students.

Entries should be sent to Miss Roberta Pellegrini and those submitted through the mail must be postmarked not later than January 24. All members of the association will act as judges, as well as judges from outside. If any member of the association wins the award, he or she will receive an additional prize of a ham.

VETERANS ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO HEAR U. S. REPRESENTATIVE

John E. Brainerd, chairman of the Branford Re-employment Veterans Advisory Committee, has called a meeting of the committee for this evening, January 18, at 8 o'clock in the Town Hall. Peter Nugent, representative of the United States Veterans Administration, will speak on the various functions of the committee. Following his talk, there will be an open question forum.

DECLARES DIVIDEND

Branford Federal Savings and Loan Association yesterday declared a three percent dividend as of December 31.

CHURCH PLANS PARTY

A group of artists from the New Haven Divinity School will entertain at a church party at the Church of Christ, Stony Creek, Friday evening, January 26.

Pilgrim Fellowship Week

To observe National Pilgrim Fellowship week, members of Pilgrim Fellowship will conduct morning services Sunday, January 28 in the Church of Christ, Stony Creek.

Mrs. Ray Gifford and Mrs. Frances Parsons of East Haven are members of the by-laws committee of the New Haven County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Vasa Star Lodge will hold an important meeting Friday evening at 8 in Svea Hall. Mrs. John Hamre will preside.

YMCA Program Requires Funds

Mr. T. F. Hammer, chairman of the finance committee, of the Branford Y.M.C.A. has sent the following letter to many of the citizens of Branford:

"If you had been present at the recent annual meeting of this Association, I know you would have been impressed by the activities reported by Mr. Leo F. Hawkins and Mr. James Patrick of the Yale Divinity School in their capacity as supervisors of the local groups of boys and girls under the sponsorship of this Association and the YMCA.

"You would have learned that despite the unsettled times, with its sometimes contrary effect on impressionable youth, much good can be accomplished by planned programmes of interest conceived in the Christian ideal. Spiritual guidance, civic duty, athletics, patriotic projects, social contacts, entertainment, topical lectures, group discussion, trips to places of interest, are but a few of these activities.

"Recently, members of our groups joined with others in taking over a session of the State Legislature for one day as object lessons in the processes of democratic government.

"It is obvious that the benefits of such activity must and will accrue to the community which sponsors it. (As the trig is bent, so is the tree inclined.) These boys and girls of today are the America of tomorrow.

"However, the continuance of this programme now in its 4th year, depends entirely upon the generosity of our interested citizens, and to that end I am taking the liberty of asking you to make a generous contribution to this great work.

"I assure you that your confidence will be well placed, and your support greatly appreciated by the boys and girls we are aiding, the Directors, and myself."

Due to limited time it is impossible to make a personal letter appeal to everyone, therefore, the committee has made this letter public and hopes the community will respond generously.

Checks may be sent to Eugene B. Rodney, Treasurer.

ETCHER LECTURES ON ARRANGEMENTS

"Design as Applied to Flower Arrangements" was the subject of an illustrated lecture given in New Haven Monday by John Taylor Arms, etcher, writer and artist.

Mr. Arms, a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was elected Chevallier of the Legion of Honor of France in 1933, and holds honorary degrees from Wesleyan University and Hobart College. He has exhibited in the United States and abroad, has been awarded prizes by leading art organizations, belongs to outstanding art clubs and societies, including the New Haven Paint and Clay Club, and has his works represented in the permanent collections of many galleries throughout the country and Europe including the Yale University Gallery of Fine Arts.

From here Mrs. Winchester Bennett and Mrs. John McCabe attended.

PARENTS INVITED TO SCOUT MEET

Scouters, mothers and dads, and friends of scouting are invited to the annual meeting of the Branford District of the Quinlinpac Council, Boy Scouts of America. The affair which is to be preceded by a covered dish supper will be in the Community House Wednesday evening.

Those planning to attend should notify Donald Thompson, Hotchkiss Grove.

At the last meeting of the Cherry Hill 4-H Club, Steve Pinta was elected chairman; Richard Brewer, vice president; and Frederick Simpson, secretary.

Pawson Tribe, No. 61, I.O.R.M. meets in the Academy Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Nearest Of Kin First To Know Of Casualties

The War Department is scrupulous about giving out information concerning servicemen. Mrs. Lucy T. Hammer, acting Home Service chairman for the Red Cross advises.

If any member of the armed forces is killed, missing, wounded or taken prisoner, the War Department takes great care in verifying facts and information.

They notify that serviceman's nearest of kin only.

Official casualty lists are given out several weeks later. Unfounded rumors are dangerous propaganda. Families who hear such rumors about men in service should not be unduly concerned unless they have received official notification from the War Department.

Public Auction Brings $134.05

Miss Mae Lindberg, played several piano solos Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the Half Hour Reading Club in the home of Mrs. William Hoadley in Montowese Street. Mrs. John W. Beaver, vice president, conducted the meeting.

The results of the public auction held in December at the academy revealed a profit of $134.05. This sum will be used for the education of Peter Blake, the English child adopted by the group.

It was also voted that non-fiction books may be donated to the library committee which consists of Mrs. Frederick Jourdan, Mrs. C. V. McDermott and Miss Harriet Cox.

Mrs. Donald Sawtelle read a paper on "Later Italian Paintings" and her talk was illustrated by colored pictures. Mrs. John Birch showed pictures related to the subject.

ARISTONIANS NAME OFFICERS FOR YEAR

At the meeting of the Aristonians last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Burne of Sybil Avenue, Indian Neck, the following newly elected officers were seated: President, Mrs. Gustaf Young; vice president, Mrs. Robert Harkie; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Kendall; secretary, Mrs. Fred Canfield.

Mrs. Harold Barker was appointed chairman of the flower committee. Mrs. Kenneth Burne was appointed a committee-of-one to investigate the by-laws of the organization.

PUPILS BUY STAMPS

A total of $582.85 was collected by the student-mothers committee in the weekly war stamp and bond sale held Monday throughout the schools.

Junior-Senior High School bought an amount totaling $180.35; Harrison Avenue, had a total of $118 to their credit and Laurel Street with $77.25 took the third position. In fourth spot was Canoe Brook with $48.05 closely followed by Harbor Street with a sum of $40.25. Stony Creek and Short Beach bought equal amounts of $39.20. In 8th place was Indian Neck with $30.55 to its credit.

Six cash bonds were purchased and two albums converted into war bonds.

Mrs. Ruth McDonald presided yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Teachers League in the high school library. An executive board was named.

Mrs. A. Paradis, Branford Hills will be hostess to the Even Dozen Club next Tuesday evening.

The Allegro Music Club will meet January 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindberg at which time Mrs. Rosalie Pinkham will be leader.

Wallace Foote, III at his home in Johnson's Point is slightly more comfortable.

Polio Victims Require Help Of Residents

Many March of Dimes events are scheduled in all parts of the world where American service men and women are fighting a global war. Many of these events are adapted to the particular locale, such as the "Kilometro of Dieels" instead of a Mile of Dimes in Italy, and a March of Rials (an Iranian coin worth about 8 cents) in Iran instead of the March of Dimes. Card parties, shooting contests, dances, and other events are being planned by various American posts in foreign fields.

Locally the drive is being done through the mails and checks or cash may be left at the library with Charles N. Baxter, chairman or Mrs. Roger A. Benton, treasurer.

The Fund-Raising Appeal throughout the United States will be marked by more diversity than ever before. While New York, Washington, Boston and many of the other large cities will have their big Birthday Parties as usual, the fund-raising events in other sections of the country range from cake walks and pie suppers to concerts, theater parties and benefit sports events.

To help provide funds for the thousands of new victims of infantile paralysis who were added last year to the long polio casualty list, the motion picture industry again is lending its full support. The week of January 25-31 has been set aside as Motion Pictures March of Dimes week and more movie theaters than ever before will participate. During that period some 14,000 theaters throughout the nation will make audience collections.

YOUNG PEOPLE HOLDING FORUM

The Young People's Department of the First Congregational Church in Branford will hold a forum next Sunday evening on the important question "Should Our Country Have Peace-Time Conscription?"

It is reported that the group feels it will be of great value to see what the majority think should be done. This will open the way for letters to be written to Congressmen registering the opinion of the group at an early date, since the issue is expected to be brought before Congress for final action in the near future.

The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting and participate in the discussion. The service will begin at 7:15 P.M.

TOWN FALLS SHORT OF WAR FUND QUOTA

In its last news bulletin it is reported that $2,340,497 was raised in Connecticut for the agencies of the National War Fund, which is 90 percent of its quota.

Of this amount Branford contributed $4,265 to date, or about 51 percent of its quota.

CHANGE IN VACATION

The spring vacation in the local school which was to be the week of February 19-25 has been changed to the week of March 5-12 in order to more evenly divide the number of weeks from January 1 to the close of school.

AUXILIARY ELECTS

Mrs. Fred Obel is the newly elected president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Indian Neck Fire Co. and is supported by Mrs. Alton Carston, vice president; Mrs. John Connelly, secretary and Mrs. Howard Hill, treasurer.

100% PERFECT

Frank Kinney, Clarence Lake, Emil Nygard, S. V. Osborn, Walter Palmer and Lewis Warner have not missed a weekly meeting since the Branford Rotary Club was organized over 16 years ago.

John Brainerd and Meyer Leshine joined over 12 years ago and have attended every meeting.

School Board Members Vote To Change Hours To Meet Bus Schedule

New Arrangement Effects Indian Neck School Only And Solves Troublesome Condition—Ruling Becomes Effective Monday Morning—Board Asks Wholehearted Cooperation.

Sunshine Club Is Bright Spot In Community

At the recent annual meeting of the Sunshine Club held at the home of Mrs. Irving Harrison of East Main Street, yearly reports were read and the following officers elected: president, Mrs. Herbert Holman; vice president, Mrs. Roland Geier; treasurer, Mrs. Walter Hoelzer; secretary, Mrs. George Pond; flower committee, Mrs. Emil Nygard, chairman, Mrs. Warren Hopper and Mrs. Emils mithfield; program and place committee, Mrs. Irving Harrison, chairman, Mrs. Maurice Smith and Mrs. William Adams; membership committee, Mrs. Milton Bradley, chairman, Mrs. Clifford Cherry and Mrs. Herbert Harrison.

During the year 362 persons were remembered with flowers, cards, or fruit. At Thanksgiving, 66 shut-ins received bouquets of chrysanthemums or baskets of fruit. At Christmas, 40 bags were made and filled with candy for distribution by the Visiting Nurses and 17 scrap-books, paste, and pictures were sent to New Haven Hospital.

Donations were made to the Red Cross War Fund Drive, the Branford Visiting Nurse Association Membership Drive, and to the Mildred Baldwin and Emma McLaughlin Memorial Funds. Eight evenings were spent at the Library doing Red Cross work. A drive was held and 33 cartons of used clothing were collected for Yugoslav refugees in Egypt.

PASTOR SPEAKS TO ROTARIANS

The Rev. Matthew G. Madden, pastor of the First Congregational Church was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Branford Rotary Club at the Oasis Town House Monday noon.

Using the subject, "Speech and Personality," Rev. Madden opined that a man's character is clearly revealed by his method of speech. He verbally illustrated his point by cleverly imitating various forms of talkers.

There were 37 at the meeting and the visiting Rotarians included Edwin Dickinson, Ralph Wilmot and J. Fulton Ferguson of New Haven and Dr. C. Tyler Holbrook and Frank P. Sullivan, both of East Haven.

JAMES MORGAN HOADLEY

James Morgan Hoadley, son of the late Paschal K. and Jane Hoadley, and well-known here where he made his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blackstone, died at his home in Seville, Ohio, on December 26, following a heart attack. Mr. Hoadley attended the local schools, and in 1905 married Miss Ethel Clapper. Besides his widow, he leaves two half sisters, Mrs. Robert Hoadley of Meriden and Miss Ethna Hoadley of North Branford.

HIGH TIDES

High tides early Tuesday afternoon made it necessary for the Connecticut Co. to substitute bus for trolley service in the Brockett Point section.

FLAGS HALF STAFF

Flags on public buildings were at half staff this week as a tribute to United States Senator Francis T. Maloney, Democrat, of Meriden who died Monday in the Meriden Hospital.

Through its secretary, Mrs. Lucy T. Hammer, the Board of Education has issued the following notice to parents of pupils attending Indian Neck School:

In your district, from time to time, there has been some dissatisfaction expressed with the transportation facilities provided for pupils of the Indian Neck School District, and with the walking distance limits.

In the past an attempt was made by the School Board to solve this condition by adjustments of school hours to conform to the Connecticut Company bus schedules but experience with the problem has proved that to do this means that recitations cannot start with any degree of efficiency for all pupils until ten minutes past nine in the morning and that they must close in the afternoon at ten minutes of three. Therefore, if the Board were to permit this arrangement of hours to continue it would mean that the length of the Indian Neck School day would be four hours and fifty minutes, even though every other elementary school in Branford is required to remain in session for five hours and fifteen minutes. In other words, this arrangement of opening and closing hours would mean that Indian Neck School pupils would continue to receive twenty-five minutes less schooling each day than the children in any other Branford elementary school. It is impossible for this to be otherwise, on such a plan, except by reducing the lunch hour to much less than fifty minutes as has been suggested; that cannot be done.

The Board of Education is charged by the State with the responsibility for furnishing satisfactory and equal education opportunity for all of the children of the community. The Board intends to fulfill that duty. In addition, the Board of Education is willing to accommodate parents insofar as it reasonably can without interfering with the right of the child to an adequate educational opportunity. The Board of Education has therefore worked out the following schedule for the Indian Neck School. It provides the maximum possible convenience to parents and permits an uninterrupted full length school day for the Indian Neck School. Accordingly, the Board of Education, by unanimous action, has ordered the Superintendent to put the following schedule into effect at Indian Neck School for all pupils as of Monday, January 22, 1945.

A. M. Session: 1st bell, 8:30; 2nd bell, 8:40; Late bell, 8:45 (session begins); recess, 10:15 to 10:30; Dismissal, 12:00; End of lunch period, 12:25 (for pupils who carry lunch.)

P. M. Session: 1st bell, 12:40; 2nd bell, 12:45; late bell, 12:50 (session begins); recess, 2:00 to 2:15; Dismissal, 2:50; End of Special Help and Make-up Class, 3:20.

You will note that the above schedule requires all pupils to be in their rooms at 8:45 A.M. thereby eliminating unnecessary waiting for recitations to begin after pupils in the free transportation zones are delivered to the school by

Continued on page four

Old Fashioned—Jitter Bugs

Old fashioned and modern dancing will be enjoyed in the Community House Saturday night, January 27 at 8 o'clock. Music will be from recordings.

The affair is given by the Community Council and everyone is invited. There is no admission charge.

The Democratic Club will hold a St. Patrick's Day dinner in the Italian American Club.

An installation dinner was given at the Chowder House last evening by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Indian Neck Fire Company.