June 2014

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, June 25th at 2:00 pm in the Hagaman Library DeMayo Community Room.

This month we have two featured guests. First, member Bob Russell will share photos he took while he was stationed at Nakhon Phanom Airbase in Thailand, 1967 - 1968.

Then author John Henningson will speak to us about the importance of writing down memories of service. John's book, A Reluctant Warrior: 1968-1974: A Vietnam Veteran's Memoir, covers his own tour throughout I Corps as an officer during the Vietnam War. He will discuss his detailed memoir which includes grid coordinates of the locations he talks about, along with his sketches of the landscape, maps, and in-country photos. John will encourage veterans, relatives of veterans and others to write down their memories of their service. Henningson is a resident of Guilford.

June 6, 2014—World War II veterans salute on the 70th anniversary of D-Day in Collevill-Sur-Mer, Normandy, France. 2nd from Left is US Navy veteran Grant "Gully" Gullickson. Our own co-facilitator, Kevin, has a connection to Gully. Gully and Kevin's father were both shipmates and D-Day survivors when their destroyer USS Corry (DD-463) was sunk D-Day morning on the front lines while dueling with German shore batteries at Utah Beach. Gully was featured in an NBC News D-Day Special with anchorman Brian Williams on June 6th, 2014.
