

THIS WAS EAST HAVEN at the close of the 18th century after the steeple had been added to the Old Stone Church. It was finished in 1796 but toppled over a year later during a tornado that tore off the church roof. Repairs were made, and the church became a landmark.