

LAKE SALTONSTALL was for many years a favorite outing spot, and New Haven Railroad offered regular service to the pleasure boat which carried parties around the beautiful lake before it was purchased by the New Haven Water Company as a water reserve. Connecticut Turnpike now passes this spot.