

East Haven Green at the corner of Main Street and Hemingway Avenue
The first meeting-house stood where the monument is now located.
(See page 5)

East Haven Green laid out in 1720. The only house left from those early days is the Abraham Chidsey House (1750) which is just behind the cannon.