FAMILY FUN FOR EVERYONE

Bremen Town Musicians with CactusHead Puppets

Saturday December 2 | 10:30–11:30 am

What can a donkey, a dog, a cat, and a rooster do when they have to leave their farm? Become world famous musicians, of course! CactusHead Puppets bring to life the hilarious tale of four farm animals who set out on the road to Bremen to pursue their dreams of stardom. Along the way, they encounter a fortune, foil some robbers, and learn how to work together in harmony. This production features lovable rod puppets, elaborate shadow scenes & the CactusHead puppets' signature sense of humor. Show length is 35 minutes plus a Q&A after the show. Sponsored by CT Humanities who are also providing free books for all. To sign up, call the library at (203) 468-3890 or email the Children's Librarian: sgardiner@hagamanlibrary.org

The Tree of Knowledge

As a member of our community of thinkers, learners & makers, are you interested in leaving a lasting mark on our library?

Consider supporting Hagaman by donating a leaf to the Tree of Knowledge. Each unique leaf is crafted of bronze & inscribed with the personal message of your choice. Whether you add a leaf with your favorite quote, your family name, or the name of a loved one as a special tribute, we welcome you to join our list of local library supporters who have left their mark at Hagaman Memorial Library.

The Tree of Knowledge is on permanent display in The DeMayo Room & is featured on the front of this brochure.

All are welcome to visit us during library hours to read the beautiful thoughts & messages that other donors like you have already left behind.

Leaves are available for a donation of $50; donations help fund maintenance costs & programming at Hagaman Memorial Library. If you are interested in donating a leaf, please call the library at (203) 468-3890 or email us at: justaskhagaman@biblio.org
