Biography:

Love motivates everything we do at Claire's Corner Copia! Love for community, love for our environment, and flat out, love for delicious and healthy homemade food.

So, on September 17, 1975 my late husband, Frank and I, armed with our mother's and our Nonna's recipes, opened our sweet little place across from Yale University Old Campus and the historic New Haven Green.

There is so much more to our story that we'd love to share with you, so we hope you'll visit our restaurant, and our cookbooks, or our website.

And, the profits from the book sales go to our charity, BeKinderThanNecessary in partnership with Yale Child Study to teach children about empathy and kindness.

Thank you.
